Volume II: Books 18-20. Paulinus Pellaeus: Eucharisticus Ausonius, Water Displays in Domestic Spaces across the Late Roman West Ginny Wheeler, 2025-02-28 Analyzes the use of water features in late antique homes across the Western Roman Empire highlighting their aesthetic social and practical significance For ambitious late antique homeowners seeking to demonstrate their status and taste water and its display offered almost infinite possibilities Water Displays in Domestic Spaces across the Late Roman West Cultivating Living Buildings presents the first synthesis of the archaeological evidence for late antique water features in both urban houses and extra urban villas across the western Empire Ginny Wheeler examines a wide and varied range of examples from decorative basins and pools to fountains of all forms and water equipped dining couches Through careful analysis and evocative reconstruction of the water displays in their diverse contexts this book explores how they were incorporated into late antique residences the different ways that they enhanced domestic spaces and the potential motives behind their insertion To assess the great efforts to which homeowners particularly in urban settings went to ensure their installation and continued operation one case study focuses on the best preserved cityscape of Ostia While the roles of water features ranged from practical to aesthetic social and symbolic this book highlights their previously under considered contributions to thermal comfort and sensory experience through in depth analyses of two Iberian villas Wheeler identifies broad patterns and regional distinctions in form and decor before reflecting on the multifaceted significance of water in the domestic sphere informed by literary epigraphic and iconographic sources Beyond contributing to the ongoing debate over fountains utility versus aesthetics this research offers new insights into the organization of life at household and neighborhood levels the social relations between homeowners occasioned by water installations and the understanding and application of environmental design in antiquity The Spartan Scytale and Developments in Ancient and Modern Cryptography Martine Diepenbroek, 2023-11-16 This book offers a comprehensive review and reassessment of the classical sources describing the cryptographic Spartan device known as the scytale Challenging the view promoted by modern historians of cryptography which look at the scytale as a simple and impractical stick Diepenbroek argues for the scytale s deserved status as a vehicle for secret communication in the ancient world By way of comparison Diepenbroek demonstrates that the cryptographic principles employed in the Spartan scytale show an encryption and coding system that is no less complex than some 20th century transposition ciphers The result is that contrary to the accepted point of view scytale encryption is as complex and secure as other known ancient ciphers Drawing on salient comparisons with a selection of modern transposition ciphers and their historical predecessors the reader is provided with a detailed overview and analysis of the surviving classical sources that similarly reveal the potential of the scytale as an actual cryptographic and steganographic tool in ancient Sparta in order to illustrate the relative sophistication of the Spartan scytale as a practical device for secret communication This helps to establish the conceptual basis that the scytale would in theory have offered its ancient users a secure method for secret communication over long distances      Urban Interactions Michael J. Kelly, Michael Burrows, 2020 This volume is dedicated to eliciting the interactions between localities across late antique and early medieval Europe and the wider Mediterranean Significant research has been done in recent years to explore how late Roman and post Roman cities towns and other localities communicated vis vis larger structural phenomena such as provinces empires kingdoms institutions and so on This research has contributed considerably to our understanding of the place of the city in its context but tends to portray the city as a necessarily subordinate conduit within larger structures rather than an entity in itself or as a hermeneutical object of enquiry Consequently not enough research has been committed to examining how local people and communities thought about engaged with and struggled against nearby or distant urban neighbors Urban Interactions addresses this lacuna in urban history by presenting articles that apply a diverse spectrum of approaches from archaeological investigation to critical analyses of historiographical and historical biases and developmental consideration of antagonisms between ecclesiastical centers Through these avenues of investigation this volume elucidates the relationship between the urban centers and their immediate hinterlands and neighboring cities with which they might vie or collaborate This entanglement and competition whether subterranean or explicit across overarching political religious or other macro categories is evaluated through a broad geographical range of late Roman provinces and post Roman states to maintain an expansive perspective of developmental trends within and about the city      Converting Verse David Ungvary, 2024 Converting Verse provides a fresh account of the ways Christian poets in the late Roman world especially those in the outlying provinces of Gaul reinvented Latin poetry's purpose and power during the turbulent fifth century a period that witnessed barbarian incursions the rise of monasticism and the collapse of the Western Roman Empire itself      Domination Alice Roberts, 2025-08-28 This is the story of the fall of an Empire and the rise of another Who spread Christianity how and why In her quest to find the answer Professor Alice Roberts takes us on a gripping investigative journey From a secluded valley in south Wales to the shores of Brittany from the heart of the Roman Empire in a time of political turmoil to the ancient city of Corinth in the footsteps of the apostle Paul from Alexandria in the fourth century to Constantinople As the Roman Empire crumbled in Western Europe a shadow of power remained almost perfectly mapping onto its disappearing territories And then it continued to spread Unearthing the archaeological clues and challenging long established histories Professor Roberts tells a remarkable story about the relationship between the Roman Empire and Christianity Lifting the veil on secrets that have been hidden in plain sight this story is nothing short of astonishing Domination is a page turning exploration of power and its survival      The Publishers Weekly, 1922      American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Non-Dewey decimal classified titles R.R.
