United States Policy Towards Indonesia in the Truman and Eisenhower Years A. Roadnight,2002-06-19 This analysis of US policy towards Indonesian nationalism concludes that Truman s support for independence was based on his Cold War priorities and not principled backing for self determination It reveals how Eisenhower s New Look led to a disastrous CIA backed intervention in 1957 58 and propelled Indonesia towards the Soviet bloc Exposing the extent of Australian influence on US policy this account reveals how the personal prejudices of Eisenhower and John Foster Dulles undermined the notion of rational policymaking American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda,2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government s position towards Indonesia s struggle for independence it adopts historical and systematic approaches and argues that interactions between two such middle powers cannot be understood separately from the overall trends of global politics It also adopts the view that despite the large differences in size culture wealth and political systems geography has dictated that the two countries share similar geo political interest and on that basis a decent working relationship has been painstakingly built against a difficult background Insight ,1994
