Joseph Dan

Autobiography of 17th Century Venetian Rabbi:

Shylock's Venice Harry Freedman, 2024-02-15 The thrilling story of the Jews in Venice and the truth behind one of Shakespeare's most famous characters Millions of visitors flood to Venice every year Yet many are unaware of its history one of dramatic expansion but also of rapid decline And essential to any history of Venice during its glory days is the story of its Jewish population Venice gave the world the word ghetto Astonishingly the ghetto prison turned out to be as remarkable a place as the city of Venice itself With sound scholarship and a narrator's skill Harry Freedman tells the story of Venice's Jews From the founding of the ghetto in 1516 to the capture of Venice by Napoleon in 1797 he describes the remarkable cultural renaissance that took place in the Venice ghetto Gates and walls notwithstanding for the first time in European history Jews and Christians mingled intellectually learned from each other shared ideas and entered modernity together When it came to culture the ghetto walls were porous Any history of Venice and its Jews also can't avoid the story of Shakespeare's Shylock The cultural and political revival in the Venice ghetto is often obscured from history by this fictional character Who we wonder was Shylock Would the people of Venice have recognized him and what did Shakespeare really think of him Shakespeare's ambivalent anti-Semitism reflects attitudes to Jews in Elizabethan England but as Freedman demonstrates Shakespeare's myth is wholly ignorant of the literary cultural and interfaith revival that Shylock would have experienced

Jewish Intellectual History in the Middle Ages Joseph Dan, 1994-10-30 Volume three of this exciting series focuses on Jewish intellectual history in the Middle Ages The editors and contributors have made available for the first time in English translation seminal articles culled from the wealth of scholarly studies written in Hebrew by experts of the past generation and current researchers breaking new ground in the field The Binah series provides a valuable resource for teaching this rich period in Jewish civilization on the undergraduate level

Connecting Histories David B. Ruderman, Francesca Bregoli, 2019-03-07 Whether forced by governmental decree driven by persecution and economic distress or seeking financial opportunity the Jews of early modern Europe were extraordinarily mobile experiencing both displacement and integration into new cultural legal and political settings This in turn led to unprecedented modes of social mixing for Jews especially for those living in urban areas who frequently encountered Jews from different ethnic backgrounds and cultural orientations Additionally Jews formed social economic and intellectual bonds with mixed populations of Christians While not necessarily effacing Jewish loyalties to local places authorities and customs these connections and exposures to novel cultural settings created new allegiances as well as new challenges resulting in constructive relations in some cases and provoking strife and controversy in others The essays collected by Francesca Bregoli and David B Ruderman in Connecting Histories show that while it is not possible to speak of a single cohesive transregional Jewish culture in the early modern period Jews experienced pockets of supra local connections between West and East for example between Italy and Poland Poland and the Holy Land and western and eastern Ashkenaz as well as increased exchanges between high and low culture Special attention is devoted to the impact of the printing press and the strategies of representation and self representation through which Jews forged connections in a world where their status as a tolerated minority was ambiguous and in constant need of renegotiation Exploring the ways in which early modern Jews related to Jews from different backgrounds and to the non Jews around them Connecting Histories emphasizes not only the challenging nature and impact of these encounters but also the ambivalence experienced by Jews as they met their others Contributors Michela Andreatta Francesca Bregoli Joseph Davis Jes s de Prado Plumed Andrea Gondos Rachel L Greenblatt Gershon David Hundert Fabrizio Lelli Moshe Idel Debra Kaplan Lucia Raspe David B Ruderman Pavel Sl dek Claude B Stuczynski Rebekka Vo

Ordering Customs Kathryn Taylor, 2023-05-12 Ordering Customs explores how Renaissance Venetians sought to make sense of human difference in a period characterized by increasing global contact and a rapid acceleration of the circulation of information Venice was at the center of both these developments The book traces the emergence of a distinctive tradition of ethnographic writing that served as the basis for defining religious and cultural difference in new ways Taylor draws on a trove of unpublished sources diplomatic correspondence court records diaries and inventories to show that the study of customs rituals and ways of life not only became central in how Venetians sought to apprehend other peoples but also had a very real impact at the level of policy shaping how the Venetian state governed minority populations in the city and its empire In contrast with the familiar image of ethnography as the product of overseas imperial and missionary encounters the book points to a more complicated set of origins

A Translation of the Magen Wa-herb by Leon Modena, 1571-1648 Leone Modena, 2001 The focus of this work is Leon Modena s polemic masterpiece the Magen Wa Hereb Shield and Sword It makes this important document in Jewish polemical thought accessible to students of comparative religion and persons interested in inter religious relations Modena s work is a delicately nuanced text written in a sparkling style with wit and charm This translation avoids a wooden rendering being honest to the original trying to bring the reader as close as possible to the honest feeling of the original as well as to its sense
