Scripting the Mind Alexandra Katerina Bacopoulos-Viau, 2013      Automatic Writing Anita M. Muhl, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1930 edition      The Course of English Surrealist Poetry Since the 1930s Rob Jackaman, 1989 This study proposes that there has been a revival of surrealist poetry and traces an uninterrupted thread of development in surrealism throughout 20th century English poetry      Irish Poetry of the 1930s Alan Gillis, 2005-06-23 Irish Poetry of the 1930s offers a provocative new take on Irish literary history and modern poetry It gives detailed and vital readings of the major Irish poets of the period including exciting new analyses of Samuel Beckett Patrick Kavanagh Louis MacNeice and W B Yeats      Surrealism and Architecture Thomas Mical, 2005 Twenty one essays examining the relationship of surrealist thought to architectural theory and practice      Surrealism and Photography in 1930s Japan Jelena Stojkovic, 2020-05-31 Despite the censorship of dissident material during the decade between the Manchurian Incident of 1931 and the outbreak of the Pacific War in 1941 a number of photographers across Japan produced a versatile body of Surrealist work In a pioneering study of their practice Jelena Stojkovic draws on primary sources and extensive archival research and maps out art historical and critical contexts relevant to the apprehension of this rich photographic output most of which is previously unseen outside of its country of origin The volume is an essential resource in the fields of Surrealism and Japanese history of art for researchers and students of historical avant gardes and photography as well as for readers interested in visual culture      The Illusion of Conscious Will, New Edition Daniel M. Wegner, 2017-12-22 A new edition of Wegner's classic and controversial work arguing that conscious will simply reminds of us the authorship of our actions Do we consciously cause our actions or do they happen to us Philosophers psychologists neuroscientists theologians and lawyers have long debated the existence of free will versus determinism With the publication of The Illusion of Conscious Will in 2002 Daniel Wegner proposed an innovative and provocative answer the feeling of conscious will is created by the mind and brain it helps us to appreciate and remember our authorship of the things our minds and bodies do Yes we feel that we consciously will our actions Wegner says but at the same time our actions happen to us Although conscious will is an illusion the most compelling illusion it serves as a guide to understanding ourselves and to developing a sense of responsibility and morality Wegner was unable to undertake a second edition of the book before his death in 2013 this new edition adds a foreword by Wegner's friend the prominent psychologist Daniel Gilbert and an introduction by Wegner's colleague Thalia Wheatley Approaching conscious will as a topic of psychological study Wegner examines cases both when people feel that they are willing an act that they are not doing and when they are not willing an act that they in fact are doing in such phenomena as hypnosis Ouija board spelling and dissociative identity disorder Wegner's argument was immediately controversial called unwarranted impertinence by one scholar but also compelling Engagingly written with wit and clarity The Illusion of Conscious Will was as Daniel Gilbert writes in the foreword to this edition Wegner's magnum opus      Artistic Outlaws

Sonja Samberger, 2005 The creator of the new composition in the arts is an outlaw until he is a classic Gertrude Stein wrote in 1926 Unlike male modernists such as T S Eliot or Ezra Pound the modernist women poets Edith Sitwell Amy Lowell Stein and H D never became high modernist models but remained artistic outlaws The present study shows how these women were present on the modernist scene but followed their own concepts and struggled to establish their position as modernist women poets Defying definition the four poets not only richly contributed to modernism but were indeed its developers
