A Summer with Tu Fu Hayden Carruth, 1996      Four Seasons of T'ang Poetry John C.H. Wu, 1989-12-15 This substantial collection of Tang Dynasty poetry includes extensive commentary and notes offering insight into this rich literary heritage Stretching out my hand I feel the pulse of the stars wrote Li Po one of the most famous of the Tang dynasty poets This superlative study of the Golden Age of Chinese poetry based on nearly 50 000 poems written by more than 2 000 poets captures not only the pulse of that period but also the spirit and soul Of this Tang blossoming Dr Wu says that for nearly thirteen centuries after Christ poetry in Europe with the exception of Juvenal kept a death like silence It hibernated so long that when it woke up again in the person of Dante the last poetic voice it could remember was that Virgil It seems though Mother Earth purposely rocked Europe to sleep for some time that she might teach Asia to sing These poetic interpretations including comparisons with many Western poets such as Shakespeare and T S Eliot represent a remarkable scholarly achievement      Du Fu's Laments from the South David McCraw, 1992-11-01 McCraw enables the reader of English to approximate the experience of encountering the peerless lyricist's poems in Chinese Sino Platonic Papers This is a remarkable labor of love from an enthusiastic admirer of Du Fu and should be recommended to all lovers of Chinese poetry China Review International Spring 1996      Because the Light Will Not Forgive Me Shaun T. Griffin, 2019-06-05 Think of a man walking in the desert writes Griffin looking for the path to its summit looking for the observatory that may at last shed light on what's below In this luminous and moving book of essays award winning author Shaun Griffin weaves together a poetic meditation on living meaningfully in this world Anchored in the American West but reaching well beyond he recounts his discoveries as a poet and devoted reader of poetry a teacher of the disadvantaged a friend of poets and artists and a responsible member of the human family Always grounded in place be it Nevada South Africa North Dakota Spain Zimbabwe or Mexico Griffin confronts the world with an openness that allows him to learn and grow from the people he meets This is a meditation on how all of us can confront our own influences to achieve wholeness in our lives Along with Griffin readers will reflect on how they might respond to a homeless man walking through central Nevada viewing the open desert as Thoreau might have viewed Walden seeing the US Mexico border as a region of lost identity reconciling how poets who live west of the Hudson River find anonymity to be their laurel and experiencing how writing poetry in prison becomes lifesaving Whether poets or places in the West or beyond experiences with other cultures or an acute awareness that poetry is the refuge of redress all have influenced Griffin's writing and thinking as a poet and activist in the Great Basin The mindfulness of Because the Light Will Not Forgive Me demonstrates that even though the light does not forgive it still reveals      For the Sake of the Light Tom Sexton, 2010-03-15 This collection of new and selected poems by the former poet laureate of Alaska Tom Sexton opens a door on the essence of life in Alaska and Maine Sexton divides his year between the two states and he captures here the small but powerful sensual details of day to day life in these contrasting yet similar environs His carefully crafted verse distills the birch and aspen lynx and ptarmigan and the snow on high peaks Through his poems we thrill to experience encounters with the wild the seasons and the sublime landscape His language is clear without tricks or fancy moves yet his directness is powerful and the effects are human Paul Zimmer Georgia Review Studies in Chinese Poetry
