A Thing Among Things An Event Among Events:

I and Thou Martin Buber, 2012-05-24 I AND THOU is one of the most important books of Western Theology In it Martin Buber heavily influenced by the writings of Nietzsche unites the proto Existentialist currents of modern German thought with the Judeo Christian tradition powerfully updating faith for modern times Since its first appearance in Germany in 1923 this slender volume has become one of the epoch making works of our time This work is the centerpiece of Buber s philosophy It lays out a view of the world in which human beings can enter into relationships using their innermost and whole beings to form true partnerships This is the original English translation and it was prepared in the author s presence

Metaphysics of Children's Literature Lisa Sainsbury, 2021-01-28 Metaphysics of Children s Literature is the first sustained study of ways in which children s literature confronts metaphysical questions about reality and the nature of what there is in the world In its exploration of something and nothing this book identifies a number of metaphysical structures in texts for young people such as the ontological exchange or nowhere in extremis demonstrating that their entanglement with the workings of reality is unique to the conditions of children s literature Drawing on contemporary children s literature discourse and metaphysicians from Heidegger and Levinas to Bachelard Sartre and Haraway Lisa Sainsbury reveals the metaphysical groundwork of children s literature Authors and illustrators covered include Allan and Janet Ahlberg Mac Barnett Ron Brooks Peter Brown Lewis Carroll Eoin Colfer Gary Crew Roald Dahl Roddy Doyle Imme Dros Sarah Ellis Mem Fox Zana Fraillon Libby Gleeson Kenneth Grahame Armin Greder Sonya Hartnett Tana Hoban Judy Horacek Tove Jansson Oliver Jeffers Jon Klassen Elaine Konigsburg Norman Lindsay Geraldine McCaughrean Robert Macfarlane Jackie Morris Edith Nesbit Mary Norton Jill Paton Walsh Philippa Pearce Ivan Southall William Steig Shaun Tan Tarjei Vesaas David Wiesner Margaret Wild Jacqueline Woodson and many others

Form and Object Tristan Garcia, 2014-03-17 What is a thing What is an object Tristan Garcia decisively overturns 100 years of Heideggerian orthodoxy about the supposedly derivative nature of objects to put forward a new theory of ontology that gives us deep insights into the world and our place

Other Things Bill Brown, 2016-01-08 From the pencil to the puppet to the drone the humanities and the social sciences continue to ride a wave of interest in material culture and the world of things How should we understand the force and figure of that wave as it shapes different disciplines Other Things explores this question by considering a wide assortment of objects from beach glass to cell phones sneakers to skyscrapers that have fascinated a range of writers and artists including Virginia Woolf Man Ray Spike Lee and Don DeLillo The book ranges across the literary visual and plastic arts to depict the curious lives of things Beginning with Achilles s Shield then tracking the object thing distinction as it appears in the work of Martin Heidegger and Jacques Lacan Bill Brown ultimately focuses on the thingness disclosed by specific literary and artistic works Combining history and literature criticism and theory Other Things provides a new way of understanding the inanimate object world and the place of the human within it encouraging us to think anew about what we mean by materiality itself

Body, Mind and

Self in Hume's Critical Realism Fred Wilson,2013-05-02 This essay proposes that Hume's non-substantialist bundle account of minds is basically correct. The concept of a person is not a metaphysical notion but a forensic one that of a being who enters into the moral and normative relations of civil society. A person is a bundle but it is also a structured bundle. Hume's metaphysics of relations is argued must be replaced by a more adequate one such as that of Russell but beyond that Hume's account is essentially correct. In particular it is argued that it is one's character that constitutes one's identity and that sympathy and the passions of pride and humility are central in forming and maintaining one's character and one's identity as a person. But also central is one's body: a person is an embodied consciousness; the notion that one's body is essential to one's identity is defended at length. Various concepts of mind and consciousness are examined for example neutral monism and intentionality and also the concept of privacy and our inferences to other minds. Time, Causality, and the Quantum Theory

S. Mehlberg,2012-12-06 An intermittent but mentally quite disabling illness prevented Henry Mehlberg from becoming recognized more widely as the formidable scholar he was when at his best. During World War II he had lived in hiding under the false identity of an egg farmer when the Nazis occupied his native Poland. After relatively short academic appointments at the University of Toronto and at Princeton University he taught at the University of Chicago until reaching the age of normal retirement. But partly at the initiative of his Chicago colleague Charles Morris who had preceded him to a post-retirement professorship at the University of Florida in Gainesville and with the support of Eugene Wigner he then received an appointment at that University where he remained until his death in 1979. In Chicago he organized a discussion group of scholars from that area as a kind of small-scale model of the Vienna Circle which met at his apartment where he lived with his first wife Janina, a mathematician. It was during this Chicago period that the functional disturbances from his illness were pronounced and not infrequent. The very unfortunate result was that colleagues who had no prior knowledge of the caliber of his writings in Polish and French or of his very considerable intellectual powers had little incentive to read his published work which he had begun to write in English.
