Notions of the person and of the foundations of bodily and moral experience lie at the heart of this second ethnographic diviners movement in part an antithetical response drawing upon the older cultural strata The key act of the diviners is oracular consultation of the burning ebony wood through the ebony personal healing is sought and the foreign gods are kept general moral philosophy historical writing and literary criticism she offers a modern humane analysis with important implications for the cross cultural study of religion In a new introduction Wendy James explains how the Sudan Ethiopian borderlands were overrun by war in 1987 and how all the villages described in the original edition were destroyed Having revisited the Uduk for various UN agencies she is able to provide an indication of the way in which they have since been embroiled in the war and how the survivors have increasingly embraced Christianity in the course of their exile She refers to her own reports and publications written since 1988 and to the TV documentary on the Uduk and other refugees which she made with Granada in 1993 Details of other recently published work on the region and to relevant new emphases in
