Coates,2015-07-28 Canada is a country founded on relationships and agreements between Indigenous peoples and newcomers Although recent court cases have upheld Aboriginal title rights the cooperative spirit of the treaties is being lost as Canadians engage in endless arguments about First Nations issues Each new court decision adds fuel to the debate raging between those who want to see an end to special Aboriginal rights and those who demand a return to Aboriginal sovereignty Greg Poelzer and Ken Coates breathe new life into these debates by looking at approaches that have failed and succeeded in the past and offering all Canadians from policy makers to concerned citizens realistic steps forward Rather than getting bogged down in debates on Aboriginal rights they highlight Aboriginal success stories and redirect the conversation to a place of common ground Upholding equality of economic opportunity as a guiding principle they argue that the road ahead is clear if all Canadians take up their responsibilities as treaty peoples Canada will become a leader among treaty nations The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1914 Includes section Reviews and notices of books The Literary Digest ,1914 Year Book Sunset Club (Chicago, Ill.),1889 The year books contain papers of the 35th 110th meetings and lists of members Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer ,1915 The Journal of the Polynesian Society Polynesian Society (N.Z.),1968 Vols for 1892 1941 contain the transactions and proceedings of the society
