Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration, 200? This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination The Story of the Forty-Second Indiana Infantry, 1861-65. Bruce V. Jones, 2016-04-30 This book is to honor the sacrifices and courage shown by the Forty Second Indiana Infantry in their military campaigns during the Civil War from their organization in 1861 until final victory in April 1865 Battle reports Walter Karig, Judges, Volume 8 Trent C.

Nanking Masahiro Yamamoto,2000-08-30 The December 1937 incident that has come to be known as the Rape of Nanking is without doubt a tragedy that will not soon be forgotten While acknowledging that a tremendous loss of life occurred this study challenges the current prevailing notion that the incident was a deliberate planned effort on the part of the Japanese military and analyzes events to produce an accurate estimate of the scale of the atrocities Drawing on Chinese Japanese and English sources Yamamoto determines that what happened at Nanking were unfortunate atrocities of conventional war with precedents in both Eastern and Western military history He concludes that post war events such as the war crimes trials and the impact of the Holocaust in Europe affected public opinion regarding Nanking and led to a dramatic reinterpretation of events The Rape of Nanking consisted of two distinct phases the mass execution of prisoners of war as well as conscription age men who appeared to be combatants and the delinquent acts of individual soldiers The first phase which occurred immediately after Nanking s fall and which claimed most of the atrocity victims was the result of the Japanese military s attempt to clear the city of Chinese soldiers thought to be in plain clothes

The second phase which lasted approximately six weeks was horrible but resulted in a much smaller number of fatalities. It was characterized by numerous criminal acts ranging from rape and murder to arson and theft committed by unrestrained Japanese soldiers. The root cause for both phases was the Japanese military's bureaucratic inefficiency and command irresponsibility. While both Chinese and American contemporary sources initially attributed the incident to these causes, subsequent Japanese atrocities against both military and civilian Allied personnel during World War II and evidence presented at war crimes trials would come to reshape perceptions of the Nanking events as an Asian counterpart to the Nazi Holocaust.

For centuries the world has witnessed the development and use of increasingly complex and powerful military systems and technologies. In the process the art of war has truly become the art of combined arms warfare in which infantry, artillery, air support, intelligence, and other key elements are all coordinated for maximum effect. Nowhere has this trend been more visible than in the history of twentieth century warfare. Originally published as an essential in-house study for U.S. Army officers during the 1980s, this much-revised and expanded edition remains the most complete study available on the subject. Rewritten with a much wider readership in mind, it both retains its enormous practical utility for military professionals and provides a valuable and appealing introduction for scholars and general readers. Jonathan House, author of the original work, brings the story of combined arms up to the present, covering among other things Desert Storm, the war in Chechnya, and the rise of smart weapons and related technologies. He traces the evolution of tactics, weapons, and organization in five major militaries: American, British, German, Russian, and French, over 100 years of warfare. Revealing both continuities and contrasts within and between these fighting forces, he also provides illuminating glimpses of Israeli and Japanese contributions to combined arms doctrine. Expanding his insightful analysis of the world wars and the wars in Korea and Vietnam, House also offers much new material focused on the post-Vietnam period. Throughout, he analyzes such issues as command and control problems of highly centralized organizations, the development of special operations forces, advances in weapons technology including ballistic and anti-ballistic missile systems, the trade offs involved in using heavy versus light armed forces and the enduring obstacles to effective cooperation between air and land forces His strong critique of the air superiority propaganda that came out of the Gulf War is sure to spark some heated debates Rigorously comparative House s study addresses significant questions about how nations prepare for war learn or don t learn its harsh lessons and adapt to changing times and technologies Unique in the annals of the literature on warfare it will be the standard work on this subject for a long time to come
