A Touch Of Forgiveness:

Forgiveness and Power in the Age of Atrocity Shann Ray Ferch, 2012 In a fresh rendering of the role of leaders as healers Forgiveness and Power in the Age of Atrocity considers love and power in the midst of personal political and social upheaval Unexpected atrocity coexists alongside the quiet subtleties of mercy and people and nations currently encounter a world in which not even the certainties of existence remain even as grace can sometimes arise under the most difficult circumstances Ultimately Forgiveness and Power in the Age of Atrocity is a book about the alienation and intimacy at war within us all Ferch speaks to categorical human transgressions in the hope that readers will be compelled to examine their own prejudices and engage the moral responsibility to evoke in their own personal life work life and larger national communities a more humane and life giving coexistence In addition to a primary focus on servant leadership the book addresses three interwoven aspects of social responsibility 1 the nature of personal responsibility 2 the nature of privilege and the conscious and unconscious violence against humanity often harbored in a blindly privileged stance and 3 the encounter with forgiveness and forgiveness asking grounded in a personal and collective obligation to the well being of humanity Modernist and postmodernist notions of the will to meaning are considered against the philosophical notion of the will to power The book examines the everyday existence of human values in a time when we inhabit a world filled as much with unwarranted cruelty as with the disarming nature of authentic and life affirming love The book asks the question Can ultimate forgiveness change the heart of violence In Forgiveness and Power people are challenged not only by the work of profound thought leaders such as Mandela Tutu but also Simone Weil Vaclav Havel Emerson Mary Oliver Martin Luther King Paulo Freire bell hooks and Robert Greenleaf The hope of the book is that people of all ages and creeds come to a deeper understanding and of personal and collective responsibility for leadership that helps heal the heart of the world A Touch of Forgiveness Emma Goldrick, 1990-01-01 Good News from Hale James Terry, 2025-11-04 What happens when timeless wisdom meets the soul of the American South Good News from Hale The Sermons of James Thomas Terry presents a collection of twelve powerful sermons delivered over some fifty years 1956 2007 by United Methodist minister J Thomas Terry These messages lightly edited to preserve their original spoken nature adhere to the seasoned bishop s advice Preach about God Preach about twenty minutes Terry s works tackle fundamental concepts of Christian living focusing on themes such as the deceptiveness of the gradual the economy of God learning to put worry behind you the challenge that Christianity is something you do and the truth that the best part of life is giving His sermons emphasize the need for spiritual strength new beginnings and answering the call to serve The volume pairs these spiritual reflections with powerful independent photographs of Hale County Alabama captured by Donald Olivares in 2024 and 2025 Hale County was significant to Terry Tom as it was where he was born raised frequently visited and ultimately retired The images serve as a visual reflection of the county and the land Tom loved Discover the wisdom of faith and service that springs from the land Tom Terry loved Dogmatics III Emil

Brunner,2025-01-01 One of the great twentieth century works of theology Emil Brunner s Dogmatics series presents a profoundly biblical systematic theology Finding a path between Barth and Bultmann Brunner explores key doctrines such as the doctrine of God creation and redemption and the doctrine of the church and of faith These foundational texts from a leading theologian of the 20th century are crucial for scholars and students illuminating how modern Protestant theology was formed in the last century The third and final volume focusses on the theology of the Church as a reflection of God s self revelation through the Holy Spirit and an eternal consummation of Divine self communication Drawing together the understanding gleaned in the previous two volumes Brunner addresses the nature of the church and faith to bring his systematic biblical theology into the experiences of his readers
