David Almond Rosemary Johnston, 2017-12-15 David Almond is one of the most exciting and innovative authors writing for children and young people today Since the publication of his award winning first book Skellig 1998 his novels have pushed the boundaries of children's literature and magical realism This vibrant collection of original essays by leading international children's literature scholars and researchers provides a theoretically informed overview of Almond's novels and fresh analysis of individual texts Exploring broad themes such as philosophy theology and cognitive science the volume also introduces new concepts such as mystical realism literary Catholicism and radical landscape

Beyond the Valley Ramesh Srinivasan, 2020-09-01 How to repair the disconnect between designers and users producers and consumers and tech elites and the rest of us toward a more democratic internet In this provocative book Ramesh Srinivasan describes the internet as both an enabler of frictionless efficiency and a dirty tangle of politics economics and other inefficient inharmonious human activities We may love the immediacy of Google search results the convenience of buying from Amazon and the elegance and power of our Apple devices but it's a one way top down process We're not asked for our input or our opinions only for our data The internet is brought to us by wealthy technologists in Silicon Valley and China It's time Srinivasan argues that we think in terms beyond the Valley Srinivasan focuses on the disconnection he sees between designers and users producers and consumers and tech elites and the rest of us The recent Cambridge Analytica and Russian misinformation scandals exemplify the imbalance of a digital world that puts profits before inclusivity and democracy In search of a more democratic internet Srinivasan takes us to the mountains of Oaxaca East and West Africa China Scandinavia North America and elsewhere visiting the design labs of rural low income and indigenous people around the world He talks to a range of high profile public figures including Elizabeth Warren David Axelrod Eric Holder Noam Chomsky Lawrence Lessig and the founders of Reddit as well as community organizers labor leaders and human rights activists To make a better internet Srinivasan says we need a new ethic of diversity openness and inclusivity empowering those now excluded from decisions about how technologies are designed who profits from them and who are surveilled and exploited by them

Media Laboratories Sarah Ann Wells, 2017-02-15 Winner LASA Best Book Published in 2017 Southern Cone Section Humanities category Media Laboratories explores a pivotal time for South American literature of the 1930s and 40s Cinema radio and the typewriter once seen as promising catalysts for new kinds of writing began to be challenged by authors workers and the public What happens when media no longer seem novel and potentially democratic but rather consolidated and dominant Moving among authors from Brazil Argentina and Uruguay and among the genres of fiction the essay popular journalism and experimental little magazines Sarah Ann Wells shows how writers on the periphery of global modernity were fashioning alternative approaches to these media Analyzing authors such as Clarice Lispector Jorge Luis Borges and Felisberto Hernandez along with their lesser known contemporaries Media Laboratories casts a wide net from spectators of Hollywood and Soviet montage films to inventors of imaginary media to proletarian typists who embodied the machine human encounters of the period The text navigates contemporary scholarly and popular debates about the relationship of literature to technological innovation media archaeology sound studies populism and global modernisms Ultimately Wells underscores a question that remains relevant what possibilities emerge when the enthusiasm for new media has been replaced by anxiety over their potentially pernicious effects in a globalizing yet vastly unequal world
