The Idea of a Christian College Todd

C. Ream, Perry L. Glanzer, 2013-10-28 In 1975 Arthur F Holmes published The Idea of a Christian College. At the time he could not have imagined his book would gather such a large following. This work's thoughtful yet accessible style made it a long standing choice for reading lists on Christian college and university campuses across the country and around the world. Countless numbers of first year students have read and discussed his book as part of their introduction to the Christian college experience. However, enough has changed since 1975 in both the Church and Academy to now merit a full scale reexamination. In this book Todd C Ream and Perry L Glanzer account for changes in how people view the Church and themselves as human agents and propose a vision for the Christian college in light of the fact that so many Christian colleges now look and act more like research universities. Including topics such as the co-curricular common worship and diversity Ream and Glanzer craft a vision that strives to see into the future by drawing on the riches of the past. First year students as well as new faculty members and administrators will benefit from the insights in this book in ways previous generations benefitted from Arthur Holmes's efforts. Already Compromised Dr. Greg Hall, Steve Ham, Todd Hillard, 2011-05-01 Will a Christian college build a student's faith or tear it down? Parents and students sacrifice large sums of money for a Christian college education. Why? They are purchasing a guarantee their child's faith in God and the Bible will be guarded and developed. But is the Bible being taught? Will they graduate believing in the inerrancy of Scripture, the Flood of Noah's Day and a literal six day creation? Apologetics powerhouse Ken Ham and Dr Greg Hall reveal an eye opening assessment of 200 Christian colleges and universities. In an unprecedented 2010 study by America Research Group college presidents, religion and science department heads were polled on critical areas of Scripture and core faith questions. Ken Ham is an accomplished author of some of the most popular and effective apologetics research on the market. He is the founder of Answers in Genesis U.S. and the president of the Creation Museum. I have no doubt that the average church member would be shocked and outraged to discover how many supposedly evangelical colleges and universities have more or less given up their commitment to biblical inerrancy and the authority of Scripture especially when dealing with the early chapters of Genesis I'm grateful for this important work by Ken Ham and Greg Hall documenting the many compromises that have ravaged the Christian academy. Already Compromised is a much needed wake up call and a summons to arms for faithful, courageous Bible believers. We need to stand up, declare our faith and defend the truth of Scripture courageously. The stakes are high and the battle may be more fierce than ever, but God will bless those who honor His Word. May He bless us with clear, unwavering voices. John MacArthur Religious Colleges and Universities in America Thomas Hunt, James Carper, 2018-10-10 Originally published in 1988 Religious Higher Education in the United States is a selected bibliography of sources addressing how religion has changed and affected education in the United States.
