Ernest Arthur Edghill

Christian Love:

The True Christian's Love for the Unseen Christ Thomas Vincent, 2025-05-30 Christian life is primarily motivated by our love for Christ Without manifesting love to Christ we are as entirely lacking spiritual life as a dead body lacks life when its soul departs for the other world Therefore professing a belief without loving Christ is dead religion and thus a professed believer who has no love to Christ is a dead man dead in transgression and sin Without a biblical love to Christ we may pretend to be Christians but we would lack entirely the true nature of a Christian In treating the true love of Christians towards Christ this book is like any other Puritan devotion intertwined with clear doctrine and sharp biblical precision in statements permeates this book on every page of it You will be unable to put it down and your life and devotion to Christ will be changed forever This book was originally published in 1812 under the title The True Christian's Love for the Unseen Christ The current edition has been proofread typeset for eBook readers and slightly updated for modern readers

Christian Love Bernard V. Komar, 2003-03-07 Bernard Brady has given us a rare delightful and thought provoking book a volume that belongs on the desk or the bed stand of anyone in search of the rich and varied dimensions of Christian love Christians are taught that God is love and are commanded to love their neighbors and their enemies These truths are not controversial What is controversial and indeed has been controversial throughout the history of Christianity is the meaning of this love This book explores the tradition of Christian reflection on the meaning and experience of love loving and being loved Many books have been written about Christian love but no book has gathered together this kind of primary source material and covered such a wide range of perspectives allowing the reader to engage directly with the thought and experience of some of the greatest Christian minds on the topic of love Bernard Brady covers with remarkable clarity the breadth and depth of discussions on Christian love from the Bible to contemporary experience to create this a survey of how Christians through the ages have understood love Beginning of course with the Bible Brady examines the key writings and thinkers on the nature of Christian love St Augustine mystics such as Bernard of Clairvaux Hadewich and Julian of Norwich the great tradition and literature of courtly love Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther S ren Kierkegaard and others In addition Brady devotes chapters to several 20th century figures whose lives seemingly embodied Christian love Mother Theresa Martin Luther King Jr and Pope John Paul II Finally Christian Love addresses contemporary deliberations over the meaning of love with an analysis of the modern writings of Martin D Arcy Reinhold Niebuhr Jules Toner Gustavo Guti rrez Gene Outka Margaret Farley Edward Vacek and Don Browning In a synthesizing concluding chapter Brady offers his own insightful and introspective understanding of the substance of Christian love suggesting that it is an affective affirmation of another that it is both responsive and unitive and that it is steadfast and enduring As a beautiful contemplative companion to one's own spiritual understanding or as a thoughtful and meaningful gift Christian Love is in every sense a treasure to behold read and share with those you love
