Christian Message For Contemporary Life:

Christian Theology, Volume One Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-09 Thomas N Finger has chosen an approach to the systematic presentation of Christian Theology which I also have taken since the publication of my Theology of Hope in 1964 He begins with the goal with eschatology With that goal in mind a new light is cast on every single doctrine of Christian theology the light of redemption and the work of the theologian becomes a labor of hope This is a theology of the way With the kingdom of God kept steadily in view it becomes an invitation to walk the way of Jesus Tom Finger s theological prospectus makes a brilliant contribution to ecumenical theological dialogue from the Anabaptist tradition He offers an eschatologically oriented theology for which I can only congratulate him Jürgen Moltmann Professor of Theology University of Tübingen While many systematic theological texts are shaped by academic discussion of ancient thought and or modern philosophies Finger centers on the kerygma of the biblical text that the last things or eschatological events expected at history s climax had already occurred through Jesus life death and resurrection though they were not yet fully realized To present eschatology as a living hope that always has motivated and still motivates Christians and Christian communities in all things Finger does not follow the discipline s traditional order where eschatology appears last but places it first Volume II will culminate with the doctrine of God which usually comes first This is hardly to minimize God s importance but to maximize it as the Christian faith s most profound mystery Volume I begins with eschatology to present it as a dynamic boundless atmosphere in which theological reflection unfolds While this dynamism envelops Christian life and mission it is not merely subjective It is hope for the transformation of all creation It is not only celebrative for it also struggles against the gruesome evils that seek to dominate all things From this vantage point eschatology in Volume I seeks to articulate the significance of the resurrection the last judgment heaven and hell the return of Christ and the millenium s coming These reflections lead to revelation beginning from the final revelation of Jesus Christ 1 Peter 1 3 13 Revelation s dimensions are treated as personal as historical extending forwards from Genesis and as propositional or its way of conveying its contents These point theological reflection to revelation s center Jesus Christ chiefly to his saving work in his life death and resurrection Here the strengths and weaknesses of the traditional substitutionary and moral influence theories are examined But when placed within their revelational or historical sequence Jesus conflict with the powers of evil stands out These prove to be gigantic systemic forces which have always ordered but also imprisoned humankind such as the Roman Empire Yet their horror and power stretch beyond any social or psychological explanation In Jesus life and death these powers appear to conquer him But through his resurrection Jesus conquers them This drama is best articulated by the Christus Victor approach in which Jesus with his Father and Spirit defeats these powers but does not totally destroy them This is why their eschatological reign is already present but evil is not yet destroyed until the end The Christian Message for Contemporary Life Stephen F. Olford, 1999 A look at the life changing power of the Christian message drawn from 1

The Faith of the Christian Church Gustaf Aulen, 2002-04-26 This paperback reprinting of Gustaf Aulen's great textbook of systematic theology should be a welcome delight to the Christian theologian. The reputation of this second English edition based on the fifth and most extensively revised Swedish edition has steadily increased over the years as a clear and sound guide to the substance of the Christian faith. Besides treating the whole compass of traditional themes associated with the doctrines of God, Christ, and the church, Aulen in this edition has provided new chapters on the Communion of Saints and on the relation between scripture and tradition. The chapters on the biblical validation of the content of faith, the doctrine of the Lord's Supper, and the unity of the church and the disunity of the churches were rewritten. The statements on the relation between the two testaments, creation and redemption, natural law, the resurrection, the validity of infant baptism, and eschatology were substantially revised. Aulen's keen analysis and clear presentation of the fundamental motifs of the Christian faith, his sharp demarcation of these motifs from their aberrations in the history of Christian thought and in contemporary theology, and especially his profound sense of the oneness of the church's faith, have endeared this book to students, theologians, clergymen, and hosts of intelligent and inquiring laity of every denomination.

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three-volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering: God's Wounds, Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Divine Vulnerability, and Creation. This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God. Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves, seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God. Through this approach, this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold: an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love (God is love) and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite, analogous to the divine life (the imago Dei as love). When fully elaborated, these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation.

Preaching Contextually Anuparthi John Prabhakar, 2016-10-06 Preaching is the commission given by the great preacher Jesus Christ. It is urgent because it communicates the essential gospel meant for the salvation of the perishing humanity. God is universal and people are local. The universal God became local in Jesus Christ through his incarnation. The saving gospel of Jesus Christ is necessary to communicate contextually. The majority of Indian Christians come from Dalit background. The ongoing development of Dalit Theology is helping to make the gospel relevant and effective But the homiletic methodology being adapted in the Indian context is mostly from the West In this scenario Preaching Contextually searches for relevant methodology for Indian Dalits For this purpose contents of some sample sermons were analyzed homiletically to assess its relevance and to present a feasible method as a Dalit Homiletic Prof Dr J lio C zar Adam Brazil This is a book which contributes enormously to homiletic research and science not only in the Indian context but also for other contexts mainly those permeated by social ills and injustices It is a necessary book for those who study and do homiletics mainly in the context of vulnerability Beyond Megachurch Myths Scott Thumma, Dave Travis, 2007-08-10 Drawing on extensive broad based and well designed research as well as stories and anecdotes Beyond Megachurch Myths dispels popular myths about megachurches while highlighting the diversity within the megachurch phenomenon Defining a megachurch as a Protestant church that averages at least 2000 total attendees in their weekend services Scott Thumma and Dave Travis reveal what these churches are and are not why they are thriving what their members say about their experiences and why they have many valuable lessons to teach smaller churches The Churchman ,1930 The American Friend ,1920 The Message of Jesus to Our Modern Life Shailer Mathews,1915 The Standard ,1901 The Chautauquan ,1913 ... Encyclopædic Catalogue ...
