A History of

Pastoral Care G. R. Evans, 2000-05-01 A history of pastoral care is a history of the Christian church in action But if any sense is to be made of the centuries of Christian work and effort not only the practicalities of making the message of the Gospel a reality on earth but also the ideas which have shaped the attempt century by century must be examined This is the history of 2000 years of thought and practice in Christian pastoral ministry Until comparatively late in that story the bulk of the formative thinking took place in the Middle East and in Europe and this forms the background for recent developments in understanding human nature and the ways in which that understanding has influenced our thinking in pastoral care Subjects covered range from the Biblical foundations to the sects and new religious movements from the Fathers the monks the Friars the Templars to the changes at the end of the twentieth century Akan Rites of Passage and Their Reception Into Christianity Robert Charles Snyder, 2003 This academic research grapples with the question of the reception of Christianity into a culture and vice versa It undertakes a systematic theological and anthropological survey of the indigenous rites of transition of the Akans of the Sub Saharan Africa in relation to the Christian rites of transition or the Christian sacraments It takes into account the importance of the various cultures from which the Christian sacraments developed and compares these cultures to the Akan culture The writer concludes that culture cannot be disowned in the evangelization of peoples because culture defines human existence in its totality Since nobody exists outside of a socio cultural context the word of God cannot but find interpretation in a culture if it is to make an impact on peoples The word of God and cultures are not antithetical they complement each other The researcher is of the view that Christian theology cannot but identify itself with cultures in order to eschew exclusivism inclusivism and absolutism Religious Books, 1876-1982 ,1983 Commonweal ,1982 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1983 The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1969
