Voices from Within the Veil William H. Alexander, Cassandra Newby-Alexander, Charles Howard Ford, 2008 And then the Veil It drops as drops the night on southern seas vast sudden unanswering There is Hate behind it and Cruelty and Tears As one peers through its intricate unfathomable pattern of ancient old old design one sees blood and guilt and misunderstanding And yet it hangs there this Veil between Then and Now between Pale and Colored and Black and White between You and Me W E B DuBois Darkwater Voices from within the Veil 1920 As the promoters of Jamestown 2007 began to speak of the accomplishment of greater diversity in the nation and to market the myth of the seamless confluence of Indian European and African traditions in the early colony many reflected not only about how the United States colonial origins were based on the entrepreneurial ambitions of English settlers the conquest and degradation of native populations and the subsequent uprooting and enslavement of untold numbers of Africans but also about how the more recent legacy of decades of discrimination and marginalization continue to shape our world today Despite the assimilation acculturation and dehumanization that have occurred in the Americas African Americans have continued to refashion their cultures to fit their own social needs and aesthetic preferences From Introduction Voices from within the Veil explores the 400 year prelude to the inclusion of African Americans in the commemoration of this nation s origins With innovative approaches and pioneering research these essays address both the conditions of African Americans marginalization and some of the paths toward their empowerment marronage the Underground Railroad social organization and massive protest movements among others A Voice in the Wilderness Michael Austin, 2006-08-15 In her writings Terry Tempest Williams repeatedly invites us as readers into engagement and conversation with both her and her subject matter whether it is nature or society environment or art From her evocation in Desert Quartet An Erotic Landscape of an eroticism of place that defines erotic as in relation to the spiritual connectivity and familial bonds she explores in Refuge An Unnatural History of Family and Place and the political engagement she urges in The Open Space of Democracy much of her work is about relationship connection and community Like much good writing her books invite readers into thoughtful dialogue with the text Frequently in demand for workshops lectures and other speaking venues and well known as an environmental activist Williams has a public persona and voice almost indistinguishable from her written ones Thus the interviews she has often granted in print on the radio on the Web seamlessly elaborate the ideas and extend the explorations of her written texts They also tell us much about the genesis context and intent of her books With her distinctive impassioned voice and familiar felicity of language she talks about wilderness and wildlife place and eroticism art and literature democracy and politics family and heritage Mormonism and religion writing and creativity and other subjects that engage her agile mind The set of interviews gathered and introduced by Michael Austin in A Voice in the Wilderness represent the span of Terry Tempest Williams's career as a naturalist author and activist

The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen, 2012-02-13 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Stra burg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin's cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements

Locating the Voice in Film Tom Whittaker, Sarah Wright, 2017 This book locates the voice in cinema in different national and transnational contexts to explore how the critical approaches to the voice as well as the practices of sound design technologies and even reception are often grounded in cultural specificity to present readings which challenge traditional theories of the voice in film
