

“ALL THE TIME WE THINK WE ARE THE LION. IN THE END, THE LION IS GOD”

Christianity Rediscovered is more than just a classic missionary story. It is also a profound challenge, a call to a radical redefinition of what we mean when we talk about mission – as relevant to today’s church as it was when it was first written.

For Vincent Donovan, his experiences amongst the Masai in East Africa meant a total reappraisal of the meaning of his faith, and a rediscovery of his Christianity. Written with moving simplicity, Donovan’s account continues to represent a provocative challenge to all those engaged in issues of evangelism and culture.

Bringing this vital work to a new generation, this edition includes a foreword by Chris Lane, author of Ordinary Miracles.

*“If you’re grappling with the relationship between faith and culture Christianity Rediscovered is one of the most important books you could possibly read. I recommend it to people all the time.”*

Pete Greig, founder of the 24/7 Prayer movement

“Culture is not the enemy of the Gospel but the very means by which we encounter the Incarnation... I hope that this new edition of a famous classic will start a much-needed conversation about the purpose and content of our Gospel proclamation.”

Philip North, Bishop of Bury

“This much loved classic inspires us to tune into the whisper of His Spirit who is endlessly creative across cultures and time, as He calls His beloved children home.”

Jill Duff, Bishop of Lancaster
