The British Museum Cookbook Michelle Berriedale-Johnson,1995 In this cookbook over 100 recipes are recreated from past cultures Recipes include a full scale Roman banquet and the exotic Kukuye Sabzi from Ancient Persia From classical Greece come honey cheesecake and from Georgian England Mrs Raffald s grapes preserved in brandy The British Museum Cookbook Michelle Berriedale-Johnson,1992 The British Museum Cookbook Michelle Berriedale-Johnson,1987

The Medieval Cookbook Maggie Black,1992 The mason s lodge Master mason Working day Building administration Design and construction Structure and structural theory Sculptural decoration The Classical Cookbook Andrew Dalby,2000 Dinners with Famous Women Eugenia R. Van Vliet,2004 This is a culinary history cookbook with a different twist women from different centuries recount the meals of their time Each chapter provides a menu and recipes for a succulent dinner inspired by these women of antiquity Learn about a meal Anne Boleyn relished at Hampton Court with Henry VIII eat a meal with Emily Dickenson and celebrate Passover with Emma Goldman Cover Museums and the Shaping of Knowledge Eileen Hooper Greenhill,1992-01-23 Museums have been active in shaping knowledge over the last six hundred years Yet what is their function within today s society At the present time when funding is becoming increasingly scarce difficult questions are being asked about the justification of museums Museums and the Shaping of Knowledge presents a critical survey of major changes in current assumptions about the nature of museums Through the examination of case studies Eileen Hooper Greenhill reveals a variety of different roles for museums in the production and shaping of knowledge Today museums are once again organising their spaces and collections to present themselves as environments for experimental and self directed learning Disappearing Foods Harlan Walker,1995 Entertaining from Ancient Rome to the Super Bowl Melitta Weiss Adamson,Francine Segan,2008-10-30 From the earliest times humans have enjoyed dining and entertainment with family and friends from sharing a simple meal to an extravagant feast for a special celebration In this two volume set entries tell the history of wedding and religious customs holidays such as Thanksgiving and Christmas and modern day get togethers such as block parties and Superbowl parties Providing a worldwide perspective on celebration entries on topics such as Dim Sum La Quinceanera Parties Deepavali and Juneteenth cover many cultures In addition entries on Ancient Rome Medieval entertaining and others give an inside view as to what entertaining was like during those times should readers want to recreate these themes for school projects or club banquets Whether a student of history or world language class or an adult planning a theme party there is something in Entertaining from Ancient Rome to the Super Bowl for everyone Fish on Friday Brian Fagan,2008-08-01 What gave Christopher Columbus the confidence in 1492 to set out across the Atlantic Ocean What persuaded the king and queen of Spain to commission the voyage It would be convenient to believe that Columbus and his men were uniquely courageous A more reasonable explanation however is that Columbus was heir to a body of knowledge about seas and ships acquired at great cost over many centuries Fish on Friday tells a new story of the discovery of America In Brian Fagan s view that discovery is the product of the long sweep of history the spread of Christianity and the radical cultural changes it brought to Europe the interaction of economic necessity with a changing climate and generations of unknown fishermen who explored the North Atlantic in the centuries before Columbus The Church s tradition of not eating meats on holy days created a vast market for fish that could not be fully satisfied by fish farms better boats or new preservation techniques Then when climate change in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries diminished fish stocks off Norway and Iceland fishermen were forced to range ever farther to the west eventually discovering incredibly rich shoals within sight of the Nova Scotia coast In Ireland in 1490 Columbus could well have heard about this unknown land The rest is history
