Timelines of History DK, 2018-04-03 Humans are a recent event in the planet s history but we ve wasted little time in making our mark The range of our achievements has created a rich and elaborate heritage that we have the unique ability to capture and record meaning we can look back and learn from the road traveled Timelines of History begins with the emergence of our earliest African ancestors and takes the reader through the history of cultures and nations around the world to arrive at the present day the beginning of a new millennium A dynamic layered timeline zooms in and out of time speeding up or slowing down to keep pace with the size and scope of events Britain Explored: Britons Exploring Susan Bassnett, 1999 Women and Architectural History Dana Arnold, 2024-07-01 In this book prominent architectural historians who happen to be women reflect on their practice and the intervention this has made in the discipline Of particular concern are the ways in which feminine subjectivities have been embodied in the discourses of architectural history Each of the chapters examines the author s own position and the disruptive presence of women as both subject and object in the historiography of a specific field of enquiry The aim is not to replace male lives with female lives or to write women into the masculinist narratives of architectural history Instead this book aims to broaden the discourses of architectural history to explore how the potentially unnatural rule of women subverts canonical norms through the empowerment of otherness rather than a process of perceived emasculation The essays examine the historiographic and socio cultural implications of the role of women in the narratives and writing of architectural history with particular reference to Western traditions of scholarship on the period 1600 1950 Rather than subscribing to a single position individual voices critically engage with past and present canonical histories disclosing assumptions biases and absences in the architectural historiography of the West This book is a crucial reflection upon historiographical practice exploring potential openings that may contribute further transformation of the theory and methods of architectural history Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license An Historical Atlas of Canada Lawrence Johnstone Burpee, 1927 Besides showing historical development contains maps showing climate vegetation population and resources of Canada Railroad, County and Township Map of Pennsylvania, and Business Directory of the Representative Business Houses ... Hannifan, P.J., & Co, 1891 Britain Discovered Arthur Marwick, 1982 Over the Hills and Far Away Hartley Kemball Cook, 2024-09-30 First published in 1947 Over the Hills and Far Away takes the reader back to the holidays of olden times and then in the footsteps of the first holiday makers on the European Continent in the 17th century We watch the slow opening up of holiday facilities in the British Isles first along roads which were mere tracks then along improved roads until the opening of the railway era and the first holiday excursions We make the Grand Tour in the 18th century we return to the ever improving roads we look in at representative Spas at home and abroad we discover the British seaside we bathe with George III at Weymouth and peep at a Blackpool jealously guarded as a select bathing resort At home and abroad we encounter gamblers highwaymen Alpine climbers budding politicians bathers explorers And in the last chapter we look back to the holiday world as it was in the summer of 1914 before the lights went out This book will be a fascinating read for anyone interested in knowing about three centuries of holidays
