Critical Paths Designing For Secure Trav:

Critical Paths Stephen T. Atkins,1989 Critical Paths is about safer design of walkways used by travellers Atkins sets out the general principles by which the environmental design operation and management of transport systems can reduce opportunities for crime showing how to integrate the roles of designer planner and operator for effective crime control

ECMT Round Tables Vandalism, Terrorism and Security in Urban Public Passenger Transport European Conference of Ministers of Transport,2003-06-02 The reader will find in this publication the recommendations which the Round Table made on ways to combat vandalism in urban public transport

Collaborative Design Stephen A.R. Scrivener,Linden J. Ball,Andree Woodcock,2012-12-06 Design occurs in a rich social context where the effectiveness and efficiency of social interaction and collective performance are key to successful outcomes Increasingly design is being explored and developed as a collective collaborative participatory and even community process The heightened recognition of designing as a social process has stimulated interest in collaborative design This book contains the proceedings of the international conference CoDesigning 2000 held in Coventry England September 2000 During this meeting exponents from a wide range of design domains came together to present and discuss perspectives on and new knowledge and understanding of collaborative design and the evidence for enhanced design performance through collaboration Within this volume different motivations for conceptions of and findings about collaborative design are addressed in 50 contributions by different research groups Structured into 6 sections according to the main fields of interest it provides a survey of the state of scientifically based knowledge and trends emerging from collaborative design research and their implications for a wide range of domains

The Urban Fabric of Crime and Fear Vania Ceccato,2012-06-21 How does the city s urban fabric relate to crime and fear and how is that fabric affected by crime and fear Does the urban environment affect one s decision to commit an offence Is there a victimisation related inequality within cities How do crime and fear interrelate to inequality and segregation in cities of developing countries What are the challenges to planning cities which are both safe and sustainable This book searches for answers to these questions in the nature of the city particularly in the social interactions that take place in urban space distinctively guided by different land uses and people s activities In other words the book deals with the urban fabric of crime and fear The novelty of the book is to place safety and security issues on the urban scale by 1 showing links between urban structure and crime and fear 2 illustrating how different disciplines deal with urban vulnerability to and fear of crime 3 including concrete examples of issues and challenges found in European and North American cities and without being too extensive also in cities of the Global South
