Remembering the Great War in the Middle East Hans-Lukas Kieser, Thomas Schmutz, Pearl Nunn, 2021-10-07 This book addresses the conflicts myths and memories that grew out of the Great War in Ottoman Turkey and their legacies in society and politics It is the third volume in a series dedicated to the combined analysis of the Ottoman Great War and the Armenian Genocide In Australia and New Zealand and even more in the post Ottoman Middle East the memory of the First World War still has an immediacy that it has long lost in Europe For the post Ottoman regions the first of the two World Wars which ended Ottoman rule was the formative experience This volume analyses this complex configuration why these entanglements became possible how shared or even contradictory memories have been constructed over the past hundred years and how differing historiographies have developed

Remembering the Great War in the Middle East reaches towards a new conceptualization of the long last Ottoman decade 1912-22 one that places this era and its actors more firmly at the center instead of on the periphery of a history of a Greater Europe a history comprising as contemporary maps did Europe Russia and the Ottoman world

Cities of Power G÷ran Therborn, 2017-05-02 Why are cities centers of power A sociological analysis of urban politics In this brilliant very original survey of the politics and meanings of urban landscapes leading sociologist G÷ran Therborn offers a tour of the world's major capital cities showing how they have been shaped by national popular and global forces Their stories begin with the emergence of various kinds of nation state each with its own special capital city problematic In turn radical shifts of power have impacted on these cities development in popular urban reforms or movements of protest and resistance in the rise and fall of fascism and military dictatorships and the coming and going of Communism Therborn also analyzes global moments of urban formation of historical globalized nationalism as well as the cities of current global image capitalism and their variations of skyscraping gating and displays of novelty Through a global historical lens and with a thematic range extending from the mutations of modernist architecture to the contemporary return of urban revolutions Therborn questions received assumptions about the source manifestations and reach of urban power combining perspectives on politics sociology urban planning architecture and urban iconography He argues that at a time when they seem to be moving apart there is a strong link between the city and the nation state and that the current globalization of cities is largely driven by the global aspirations of politicians as well as those of national and local capital With its unique systematic overview from Washington D C and revolutionary Paris to the flamboyant twenty first century capital Astana in Kazakhstan its wealth of urban observations from all the populated continents and its sharp and multi faceted analyses Cities of Power forces us to rethink our urban future as well as our historically shaped present
