Picturing Indians Liza Black, 2022-12-20 Liza Black critically examines the inner workings of post World War II American films and production studios which cast American Indian extras and actors as Native people forcing them to come face to face with mainstream representations of Indianness Local Hero Jonathan Melville, 2022-10-13 It's not a high concept movie there's actually no story there really It's what happens in between the story that's important Bill Forsyth The story of an American businessman sent to buy the Scottish village of Ferness with the aim of turning it into an oil refinery Local Hero is one of Scotland's most beloved and most misunderstood films When Bill Forsyth's incredible success with the low budget That Sinking Feeling and Gregory's Girl found him collaborating with Britain's best known film producer David Puttnam he soon found his independent ethos clashing with Hollywood's desire for superstar actors and a happy ending Jonathan Melville checks into the MacAskill Arms and looks back at Bill Forsyth's career with the help of new and archive interviews before spending time with the cast and crew including stars Peter Riegert and Denis Lawson who made Local Hero on location in Houston and Scotland in 1982 With access to early drafts of the Local Hero script including hand written notes that reveal more about Mac and mermaids excerpts from a previously unpublished interview in which Bill Forsyth explains why he refuses to call his film feel good and a look at long lost deleted scenes with exclusive commentary from those involved this is the definitive history of the Scottish classic Genuine fairy tales are rare so is film making that is thoroughly original in an unobtrusive way Bill Forsyth's quirky disarming Local Hero is both it demonstrates Mr Forsyth's uncanny ability for making an audience sense that something magical is going on even if that something isn't easily explained Janet Maslin The New York Times Local Hero is kind of transcendent It's poetic in a way that most films can't hope to be Frank Cottrell Boyce Local Hero is one my favourite films of all time A timeless masterpiece Mark Kermode John Huston Allen Cohen, Harry Lawton, 1997 This reference work provides a biography of John Huston a critical survey of his oeuvre a chronology of his life a filmography with synopses of the films he directed wrote for or appeared in an annotated bibliography of writings on Huston a list of articles and reviews of particular films and information concerning screenplays awards and honors archival resources and related matters Largely follows the organizational pattern of A Reference Publication in Film series Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Illustrated Timeline of Western Literature Carol Strickland, 2007 Professors students and anyone who loves to read will want this fascinating and attractive volume Beginning with great works from Antiquity to the Middle Ages this literary timeline gallops from Mesopotamian pictograms and Julius Caesar's Commentaries on the Gallic to Renaissance and Baroque masterworks by Machiavelli and Molière and on to modernism Along the way it presents the birth of the novel Gothic chills Thomas Paine's rabble rousing as well as landmark French and Russian authors Emerson's essays and the first detective story by Poe Victoriana the Aesthetic Movement Utopian Literature and Naturalism make their appearance all the way up to today's Tom Stoppard and Tony Kushner There's a detailed
