Developing Cross Curricular Learning In Museums And Galleries:

Developing Cross Curricular Learning in Museums and Galleries Sue Wilkinson, Sue Clive, 2001 Based on the work of Art Society and the South Eastern Museums Education Unit SEMEU this book aims to guide teachers in planning innovative local visits to achieve a broad and balanced curriculum Learning at the Museum Frontiers Viv Golding, 2016-04-22 In Learning at the Museum Frontiers Viv Golding argues that the museum has the potential to function as a frontier a zone where learning is created new identities are forged and new connections made between disparate groups and their own histories She draws on a range of theoretical perspectives including Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics Foucauldian discourse on space and power and postcolonial and Black feminist theory as well as her own professional experience in museum education over a ten year period applying these ideas to a wide range of museum contexts The book offers an important theoretical and empirical contribution to the debate on the value of museums and what they can contribute to society The author reveals the radical potential for museums to tackle injustice and social exclusion challenge racism enhance knowledge and promote truth

Curriculum Development in the Postmodern Era Patrick Slattery, 2006 This landmark text was one of the first to introduce and analyze contemporary concepts of curriculum that emerged from the Reconceptualization of curriculum studies in the 1970s and 1980s This new edition brings readers up to date on the major research themes postmodernism ecological hermeneutics aesthetics and arts based research race class gender sexuality and classroom practices within the historical development of the field from the 1950s to the present Like the previous editions it is unique in providing a comprehensive overview in a relatively short and highly accessible text Provocative and powerful narratives both biography and autoethnography throughout invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation School based examples allow readers to make connections to schools and society teacher education and professional development of teachers Changes in the Third Edition New Glossary brief summaries in the text direct readers to the Companion Website to read the entire entries New analysis of the current accountability movement in schools including the charter school movement More international references clearly connected to international contexts More narratives invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation Companion Website new for this edition

Resources in Education, 1996-04 Creating Meaning Through Art Judith W. Simpson, 1998 This innovative book helps readers develop a personal philosophy and an artful approach to teaching This text uses the premise that teacher choices set the stage for a balanced approach to art education that considers the child society and the curriculum This book provides information regarding artistic development artistic behavior and methodology for developing curriculum across the developmental spectrum The reader is directly addressed as each chapter presents recent research along with important concepts to understand focuses on different aspects of art education and outlines advantages and challenges of making the suggested choices and also includes suggested activities so readers can act upon content For art teachers at the elementary or secondary education level or students studying to be art teachers Learning on Display Linda D'Acquisto,2006-05-15

The story of the civil rights movement The characteristics of Japanese art and culture The importance of innovation The history of your community No matter the subject area or the grade level a school museum project can improve learning and teaching Unlike science fairs or art shows which highlight the work of individuals school museums are collaborative multifaceted projects that build understanding As students engage in meaningful work and deepen their knowledge of a specific topic teachers gain insight into best instructional practices Through photographs and classroom examples former curriculum director teacher and museum educator Linda D Acquisto shows how school museums inspire students curiosity and creativity encourage responsibility and teamwork and strengthen writing communication research and problem solving skills You will learn the process for developing your own exhibition including strategies for incorporating academic content standards assessing learning and understanding guiding research writing and design promoting partnerships among students colleagues parents and the community using the completed museum as a teaching tool With its step by step approach and practical resources Learning on Display will help you transform your curriculum into motivating museum
