Dimensions of Register Variation Douglas Biber, 1995-08-31 Douglas Biber's new book extends and refines the research and methodology reported in his ground breaking Variation Across Speech and Writing CUP 1988 In Dimensions of Register Variation he gives a linguistic analysis of register in four widely differing languages English, Nukulaelae, Tuvaluan, Korean and Somali Using the multi dimensional analytical framework employed in his earlier work Biber carries out a principled comparison of both synchronic and diachronic patterns of variation across the four languages Striking similarities as well as differences emerge allowing Biber to predict for the first time cross linguistic universals of register variation This major new work will provide the foundation for the further investigation of cross linguistic universals governing the pattern of discourse variation across registers and will be of wide interest to any scholar interested in style register and literacy

Sociocultural Dimensions of Language Change Ben G. Blount, Mary Sanches, 2014-05-10 Sociocultural Dimensions of Language Change focuses on the influence of sociocultural terms on the forms of languages The selection first underscores the sociocultural dimensions of language change and language evolution and speech style Discussions focus on the relation of speech style and language evolution linguistic evidence of language evolution autonomy of code and style language contact phenomena and extension of the concept of language The book then takes a look at speech and social prestige in the Belizian speech community Japanese numeral classifiers and speculations on the growth of ethnobotanical nomenclature Topics include appearance of varietal names differentiation and formation of specific names six universal categories of ethnobotanical nomenclature salience of speech and prestige social success and language The publication elaborates on color categorization in West Futunese creolization and syntactic change in New Guinea Tok Pisin relexification processes in Philippine Creole Spanish and the historical and sociocultural aspects of the distribution of linguistic variants in highland Chiapas Mexico The selection is a valuable source of data for language experts and researchers interested in the sociocultural dimensions of language change

The language dimension in all subjects Jean-Claude Beacco, Mike Fleming, Francis Goullier, Eike Thürmann, Helmut Vollmer, Joseph Sheils, 2016-10-24 Mastering the language of schooling is essential for learners to develop the skills necessary for school success and for critical thinking It is fundamental for participation in democratic societies and for social inclusion and cohesion This handbook is a policy and working document which promotes convergence and coherence between the linguistic dimensions of various school subjects It proposes measures to make explicit in curricula pedagogic material and teacher training the specific linguistic norms and competences which learners must master in each school subject It also presents the learning modalities that should allow all learners and in particular the most vulnerable among them to benefit from diversified language learning situations in order to develop their cognitive and linguistic capacities

Urban Diversities and Language Policies in Medium-sized Linguistic Communities Emili Boix, 2015 This book examines medium sized linguistic communities in urban contexts against the backdrop of the language policies which have been implemented in these respective areas The book aims to improve our understanding of how and why languages live and decay and of how intercultural cities where communities show interest in each other's culture and language can be better built and encouraged

Dimensions of Language Experience Charlotte B. Winsor, 1975

Mapping Linguistic Diversity in Multicultural Contexts Monica Barni, Guus Extra, 2008-08-27 Within the European context linguistic diversity can be studied at the level of both official state languages and non national languages This comprehensive overview offers insightful crossnational and crosscontinental perspectives on non national languages in terms of both regional and immigrant languages The book focuses on mapping linguistic diversity in both the private and public domain Methodological issues and empirical outcomes are explored for a variety of European and non European countries and languages The book consists of four parts Part 1 provides an introduction to the subject as well as an overview and discussion of migration statistics and language use Part 2 deals with the mapping of regional languages in Europe exemplified by case studies on Welsh Basque and Frisian Part 3 focuses on immigrant languages in Europe and includes case studies from both national Switzerland Italy France and crossnational Multilingual Cities Project perspectives Part 4 turns to mapping linguistic diversity abroad with case studies on Australia South Africa Turkey and Japan

Dimensions of L2 Performance and Proficiency Alex Housen, Folkert Kuiken, Ineke Vedder, 2012 Research into complexity accuracy and fluency CAF as basic dimensions of second language performance proficiency and development has received increased attention in SLA However the larger picture in this field of research is often obscured by the breadth of scope multiple objectives and lack of clarity as to how complexity accuracy and fluency should be defined operationalized and measured The present volume showcases current research on CAF by bringing together eleven contributions from renowned international researchers in the field These contributions not only add to the body of empirical knowledge about L2 use and L2 development by bringing new research findings to light but they also address fundamental theoretical and methodological issues by responding to questions about the nature manifestation development and assessment of CAF as multifaceted constructs Collectively the chapters in this book illustrate the converging and sometimes diverging approaches that different disciplines bring to CAF research

Sociolinguistical Dimensions of Language Use Mary Sanches, Ben G. Blount, 1975

Children's Language and Learning Judith Wells Lindfors, 1980

Motivation, Language Attitudes and Globalisation Zoltán Dörnyei, Kata Csizér, Nóra Németh, 2006-04-12 This volume presents the results of the largest ever language attitude motivation survey in second language studies The research team gathered data from over 13 000 Hungarian language learners on three successive occasions in 1993 1999 and 2004 The examined period covers a particularly prominent time in Hungary's history the transition from a closed Communist society to a western style democracy that became a member of the European Union in 2004 Thus the book provides an attitudinal motivational flow chart describing how significant sociopolitical changes affect the language disposition of a nation The investigation focused on the appraisal of five target languages English German French Italian and Russian and this multi language design made it also possible to observe the changing status of the different languages in relation to each other over the examined 12 year period Thus the authors were in an ideal position to investigate the ongoing impact of language globalisation in a context where for various political historical reasons certain transformation processes took place with unusual intensity and speed The result is a unique blueprint of how and why language globalisation takes place in an actual language learning environment Scientific and Humanistic Dimensions of Language Kurt R. Jankowsky,1985-01-01 A collection of papers on Language teaching Bilingualism Language testing Contrastive analysis Language acquisition and performance Language thought and meaning Linguistic and literary analysis Lexical and terminological studies Language policy and language planning A Standard Dictionary of the English Language Isaac Kaufman Funk,1906 The Sociopolitics of English Language Teaching Joan Kelly Hall,William Eggington,2000-01-01 The sociopolitical dimensions of English language teaching are central to the English language professional These dimensions include language policies cultural expectations and the societal roles of languages This book aims to present these issues to practicing and aspiring teachers in order to raise awareness of the sociopolitical nature of English language teaching National Policy on Languages Joseph Lo Bianco,Australia. Department of Education,1987 Identifies factors provoking shift from implicit language policies such as denigration of Aboriginal languages to the development of an explicit language policy where bilingualism replaces English monolingualism PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS Youbin Zhao,Wei Lin,Zhiqing Zhang,2017-07-04 This two volume book contains the refereed proceedings of The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China on its Zhuhai campus October 27 29 2016 The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world s languages and cultures The past decade or so in particular has witnessed remarkable progress concerning research on issues related to this topic Given this dynamic The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China was held at the Zhuhai campus of Jinan University on October 27 29 2016 This conference attracts a large number of translators interpreters and researchers providing a rare opportunity for academic exchange in this field The 135 full papers accepted for the proceedings of The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University

China were selected from 350 submissions For each paper the authors were shepherded by an experienced researcher Generally all of the submitted papers went through a rigorous peer review process El-Hi Textbooks in Print ,1970 Includes related teaching materials Linguistics for the Teacher Joseph C. Mukalel,2003 The book aims at introducing the language teacher in general and the teacher of English in particular to the field of linguistics that should necessarily form the basis of his own understanding of what language is and of his classroom practice generating from this knowledge An understanding of the nature of English as a language as such because essential for the teacher as he begins evolving adequate classroom methodology teaching techniques as well as the large variety of learning experiences that go into the making of what we call effective teaching His own treatment of the classroom situations largely depends on these linguistic specification that are provided to him by the linguist
