Dimensions Of Life A About Self Family Work:

Dimensions of Life Gail H. Henderson, 1985      Soul Passion Ramesh P. Richard, 2003-10-01 Do you want to discover the meaning of your life Through the ages man has searched for the meaning of life But even though many of us know there must be something more we stumble about with undirected goals and undiscovered passion In Soul Passion the first book in his Intentional Life Trilogy Ramesh Richard motivates readers to ask themselves what their passion is where they have placed their heart love trust and sufficiency Discovering your soul passion is the foundation for living a biblically well built and profitable life      Doctors: Their Wellbeing & Stress (Cost of Employment: Case of Medical Professionals) Prof. Dr. Rajendra Singh Rajput,      Consciousness-Based Leadership and Management, Volume 2 Anil K. Maheshwari, 2023-08-17 This two volume set examines the need for a consciousness based view of leadership which emphasizes universal human flourishing as opposed to a resource based view which focuses on sustaining a competitive advantage This approach is built around three main principles 1 Paradigm Consciousness is primary including complementary existence of opposites 2 Social Interpersonal focusing on empathy and compassion and 3 Individual experiencing Oneness and expressing creativity Volume Two is divided into two sections Each section offers a mix of qualitative and quantitative studies The first section focuses on consciousness based development of organizational capabilities such as ambidexterity flow and work life balance The second section is focused on organizational interventions such as reinvention meaning making well being and sustainability Aligning leadership practices with the notion of an unbounded consciousness this edited collection will extend literature on organizational culture leadership and sustainability contributing to solving the grand challenges facing humanity      Science Diplomacy and Neocolonialism: Lessons from the field with a view to the future Rana Dajani ,Tania Bosqui,Rasha Bayoumi ,Abdullah Awad, 2025-11-06 For the past three decades scientists and policymakers in the Global South have practiced science diplomacy under neocolonial conditions Recent crises including the COVID 19 pandemic and Russia s invasion of Ukraine have further complicated science diplomacy on public health revealing the marginalisation of actors in the Global South Yet existing models practices and modes of engagement in the Global South may subvert and strategically navigate these neocolonial conditions How can these models be collated in a dynamic and flexible way such that knowledge gained through new experiences is used iteratively across contexts How can scientists increase multilateral interdisciplinary and transversal partnerships while navigating complex governmental and international structures For this special issue we call for papers that demonstrate innovative and flexible models for science diplomacy with a focus on public health and health promotion policies We aim to collect evidence across various aspects of public health research which demonstrates the practical role of science diplomacy in the Global South as well as the structural challenges faced on the ground While South America and Asia have received scholarly attention especially in incorporating decolonial thinking and heritage diplomacy less has been studied in the Middle East and Africa Moreover less has been done in framing science diplomacy in terms of neocolonialism in order for its root structure to be constructively challenged Areas to be covered may include but are not limited to building partnerships among stakeholders across the Global South to ensure practical implementation of public health research modes by which scientific research is grounded in local culture and context the role of stakeholders in furthering health promotion including governments the UN NGOs academia and the private sector case studies which balance the participation of researchers from the Global South with the representation of gender ethnicity and disability positioning researchers as protagonists irrespective of geographies and state hierarchies in the international system turning governments financial power in research into a force for the good rather than a tool of neocolonialism
