Directing And Producing For Television:

Directing and Producing for Television Ivan Cury, 2012-10-02 Directing and Producing for Television provides you with the tools you'll need to direct and produce effectively in a variety of settings. Based on his years of experience in the industry and teaching the subject, Cury illustrates fundamental principles with engaging anecdotes that teach by example. Ideal for students in television production courses as well as industry professionals, Directing and Producing for Television addresses critical production techniques for various formats including panel programs, demonstration, scripted music commercials, PSAs, news, documentaries, remote broadcasting, and sports. Each chapter concludes with a valuable review section summarizing key points. Written with both the director and producer in mind but particularly relevant for the television director, Directing and Producing for Television gives a comprehensive overview of the facility, studio control room, and/or support areas and provides who's who information covering the various jobs and personnel involved in television programs.
