Grann's The Wager and Nathaniel Philbrick's In the Heart of the Sea this pulse-pounding true story has become a real-life example of one of life's greatest moral dilemmas. Power in Vulnerability Nicolas Fromm, Annette Jünemann, Hamza Safouane, 2021-10-22. With this volume the editors propose a multi-dimensional and critical review of migrants' vulnerabilities. They argue that a deeper understanding of vulnerability is paramount to discuss empowerment and resilience. Regardless of their motivations, migrants can face vulnerabilities at any of the stages of their journey. These vulnerabilities may change over time for better or worse, corresponding with a person's legal status, migratory path, and the practices of migration regulation. This book addresses vulnerability from an interdisciplinary and intersectional perspective. It brings together latest academic research and practitioners' insights to help reception societies adapt and improve their dealing with migrants' vulnerabilities.

The Hizmet Movement in Exile Sophia Pandya, 2026-01-22. This ethnographic work sheds light on the stories of those exiled as a result of Turkey's purge against followers of the Hizmet/Gülen Movement, a purge which began after the failed coup against Erdogan in 2016. In this book, Sophia Pandya gives voice to the experiences of these political refugees while analyzing the forces behind their displacement and highlighting the powerful process of experience narration and the creation of meaning after trauma. The study is informed by the author's longstanding contact with figures in the Hizmet/Gülen Movement over the past 26 years. The book features 71 interviews with exiles collected during fieldwork in Greece between 2018 and 2021. These narratives serve as a historical record of the individual human rights violations in Turkey since the failed coup but also provide a framework for understanding the human cost of this authoritarian crackdown. By integrating fieldwork, personal narratives, and academic theoretical grounding, this book offers a multifaceted view of the refugee experience.

Work with Boys, 1916 The World Set Free Herbert George Wells, 1914. The World Set Free is a novel written in 1913 and published in 1914 by H.G. Wells. The book is based on a prediction of nuclear weapons of a more destructive and uncontrollable sort than the world has yet seen. It had appeared first in serialised form with a different ending as A Prophetic Trilogy consisting of three books: A Trap to Catch the Sun, The Last War in the World, and The World Set Free. A frequent theme of Wells's work, as in his 1901 non-fiction book Anticipations, was the history of humans' mastery of power and energy through technological advance, seen as a determinant of human progress. The novel begins: "The history of mankind is the history of the attainment of external power. Man is the tool using fire, making animal."
