The Development Encounters: Local Resistance and State Intervention Man Purotaganon, 1999

Development with a Body Andrea Cornwall, Sonia Correa, Susie Jolly, 2008-09-15 We used to talk about development with a human face We should be talking about development with a body Arit Oku Egbas African Regional Sexuality Resource Centre Nigeria Sex and sexuality have always had a place at the heart of the development agenda from concerns regarding population and environment to practices in education and efforts for protecting reproductive health and rights Yet this agenda has largely focused on negative dimensions of sexuality disease risk violation rather than positive aspects including rights to sexual fulfillment wellbeing and pleasure The shift towards a rights based approach to development has brought the human rights dimensions of sexuality into clearer view and consequently the need to address discriminatory laws and violations of the human rights of those whose sexual identity and practices diverge from dominant sexual orders norms This book offers compelling insights into contemporary challenges and transformative possibilities of the struggle for sexual rights It combines the conceptual with the political and offering inspiring examples of practical interventions and campaigns that emphasize the positive dimensions of sexuality It brings together reflections and experiences of researchers activists and practitioners from Brazil India Nigeria Peru Serbia South Africa Turkey the UK and Zambia From political discourse on sex and masculinity to sex work and trafficking from HIV and sexuality to struggles for legal reform and citizenship the authors explore the gains of creating stronger linkages between sexuality human rights and development
