Heartsick for Country Sally Morgan, Tjalamina Mia, Blaze Kwaymullina, 2021-05-11 The stories in this anthology speak of the love between Aboriginal peoples and their countries They are personal accounts that share knowledge insight and emotion each speaking of a deep connection to country and of feeling heartsick because of the harm that is being inflicted on country even today through the logging of old growth forests converting millions of acres of land to salt fields destruction of ancient rock art and significant Aboriginal sacred sites and a record of species extinction that is the worst in the world

Wishbone Laura C. Jarmon, 2003 Jarmon English U of Tennessee Martin studies the history and attempts to trace the origins of several prevalent themes in African American folklore using folk tale collections from the US and Africa The themes link subjects with symbolic content such as tar baby with binding and transcription and the skull with presence and propriety An introduction presents Jarmon's methodology her thesis is that these narratives are a type of modal discourse that is symbolized by the motifs of the wishbone and crossroads which she sees as emblematic of the concept of margins and reflective of a mood of indeterminacy Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Rise of Wolfhound
