West African Women Entrepreneurs in a Glocal World Ulrike Schuerkens, 2025-03-24
More African women than men become entrepreneurs with women often balancing time caring for their households with small enterprises such as setting up shops in front of their homes renting market stalls or setting up hairstyling businesses
This book considers these micro level instances of entrepreneurship as well as cases of more established high status entrepreneurs to build a picture of women entrepreneurs in West African societies and their wider role in socio economic development
Small and medium enterprises are seen as agents of change in the global south vital for job creation and poverty reduction but women often face barriers which hinder their entrepreneurial success such as lack of funding useful networks or inhibitive gender stereotypes
This book highlights cases of gender and economic success to demonstrate the significant potential of the female economy to generate progress and change
This book will be an important read for students and researchers of entrepreneurship business gender development and economic sociology in Africa
