Ea Lost Explorer:

Our Lost Explorers Raymond Lee Newcomb, Richard W. Bliss, 1882 From 1879 1881 a crew of thirty three men led by Lieutenant Commander George Washington DeLong participated in an Arctic adventure that defines the limits of human endurance The Navy operated but privately owned steamer Jeannette left San Francisco California for the North Pole through what was then believed to be open water beyond the Arctic icepack The Jeannette remained in the ice as it drifted to the northwest through the first half of 1881 During this time the crew made scientific observations hunted seals and polar bears In May 1881 they landed on Henrietta Island 600 miles from Wrangell In June 1881 the ice parted and they hoped they might reach open sea but on the 12th the flows closed in with such force that Jeannette s hull was crushed Her crew removed three boats supplies and some equipment and began a difficult trek dragging the boats over the ice towards open water They reached the Kotelnoi and Simonoski Islands in early September after which the way was clear to sail to the Lena Delta However the three boats were separated in a storm One commanded by Lieutenant Charles W Chipp and seven other men was not seen again The other two commanded by DeLong with thirteen others and Chief Engineer George W Melville with ten others landed far apart on the delta Melville s party was saved by local inhabitants DeLong and his men trudged south over the desolate terrain After one man died of the effects of frostbite and the others were weakened by exposure and hunger Seamen Nindemann and Noros were sent ahead to find help Before that materialized the remaining eleven succumbed with DeLong and two others surviving perhaps a few days beyond 30 October 1881 when he made his final journal entry The bodies of ten were discovered in March 1882 as Melville conducted a search for the other members of the expedition and were transported back to the United States in early 1884 The United States Catalog ,1904 The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1898 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1908 Subverting the Empire Paul Genoni,2004 This paper examines the way in which contemporary Australian novelists use various tropes derived from exploration in order to embellish themes of personal search in their fiction By doing so they have borrowed from the language and myths created by what was essentially an exercise in imperialism and applied them to the quest by individuals in the settler society to find a permanent spiritual home in the new country The exploration imagery proves to be apposite in that just as the empire s hopes were dashed when exploration of the inland was repelled by the barren heart of the continent so too has the metaphysical exploration of the same spaces foundered on uncompromising and withholding landscapes The Shadow of a Dream Peter A. Coclanis,1991 Coclanis here charts the economic and social rise and fall of a small but intriguing part of the American South Charleston and the surrounding South Carolina low country Spanning 250 years his study analyzes the interaction of both external and internal forces on the city and countryside examining the effect of various factors on the region s economy from its colonial beginnings to its collapse in the 19th and early 20th centuries Young People's Books Chicago Public Library,1912 The Annual American Catalog, 1906
