

ALONE

From childhood's hour I have not been
As others were; I have not seen
As others saw; I could not bring
My passions from a common spring.
From the same source I have not taken
My sorrow; I could not awaken
My heart to joy at the same tone;
And all I loved, I loved alone.
Then- in my childhood, in the dawn
Of a most stormy life- was drawn
From every depth of good and ill
The mystery which binds me still:
From the torrent, or the fountain,
From the red cliff of the mountain,
From the sun that round me rolled
In its autumn tint of gold,
From the lightning in the sky
As it passed me flying by,
From the thunder and the storm,
And the cloud that took the form
(When the rest of Heaven was blue)
Of a demon in my view.

comprised the highest level of the Sumerian pantheon The very existence of these writings which date from the Third Millennium B C was unknown until about 100 years ago when their cuneiform script was deciphered Since then it has become apparent that Sumerian literature had a profound and enduring influence on both Biblical and classical Greek literature and so on the literature of the western world as a whole Kramer one of the world s leading sumerologists has prepared these translations from among the scores of works he has published over the last fifty years John Maier provides a full interpretive framework that places the translations in their broader comparative cultural context This rare collection will be of interest to students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines from Near Eastern and Biblical Studies to Mythology and Comparative Literature
