Earliest Civilizations:

Ancient Civilizations from the Earliest Times to the Birth of Christ Donald Alexander Mackenzie,1927 Earliest Civilizations Carol G. Thomas,1982-07-21 Understanding Early Civilizations Bruce G. Trigger,2003-05-05 This book offers the first detailed comparative study of the seven best documented early civilizations ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia Shang China the Aztecs and adjacent peoples in the Valley of Mexico the Classic Maya the Inka and the Yoruba Unlike previous studies equal attention is paid to similarities and differences in their sociopolitical organization economic systems religion and culture Many of this study s findings are surprising and provocative Agricultural systems technologies and economic behaviour turn out to have been far more diverse than was expected These findings and many others challenge not only current understandings of early civilizations but also the theoretical foundations of modern archaeology and anthropology The key to understanding early civilizations lies not in their historical connections but in what they can tell us about similarities and differences in human behaviour

The Early River Valley Civilizations Rebecca Kraft Rector,2016-07-15 The earliest civilizations developed in fertile river valleys where the conditions were right to support large settled populations This book tracks how social hierarchies religion culture written language technology and more developed first in Mesopotamia and then independently in the Nile Indus and Yellow River Valleys A timeline helps readers get a better grasp of what developments were happening simultaneously in different parts of the world This title will give readers a real appreciation for the contributions of each of these influential civilizations
