The Decision Between Us John Paul Ricco,2014-03-31 The Decision Between Us combines an inventive reading of Jean Luc Nancy with queer theoretical concerns to argue that while scenes of intimacy are spaces of sharing they are also spaces of separation John Paul Ricco shows that this tension informs our efforts to coexist ethically and politically an experience of sharing and separation that informs any decision Using this incongruous relation of intimate separation Ricco goes on to propose that decision is as much an aesthetic as it is an ethical construct and one that is always defined in terms of our relations to loss absence departure and death Laying out this theory of unbecoming community in modern and contemporary art literature and philosophy and calling our attention to such things as blank sheets of paper images of unmade beds and the spaces around bodies The Decision Between Us opens in 1953 when Robert Rauschenberg famously erased a drawing by Willem de Kooning and Roland Barthes published Writing Degree Zero then moves to 1980 and the neutral mourning of Barthes Camera Lucida and ends in the early 1990s with installations by Felix Gonzalez Torres Offering surprising new considerations of these and other seminal works of art and theory by Jean Genet Marguerite Duras and Catherine Breillat The Decision Between Us is a highly original and unusually imaginative exploration of the spaces between us arousing and evoking an infinite and profound sense of sharing in scenes of passionate erotic pleasure as well as deep loss and mourning

Derrida, Supplements Jean-Luc

Nancy,2023-09-05 When Jean Luc Nancy first encountered the work of Jacques Derrida in the 1960s he knew he was hearing something new a voice genuinely of its time Thinking with and against each other over the course of their long friendship the two thinkers reshaped the European intellectual landscape Nancy s writings on Derrida collected in this volume reflect on the elements of their shared concerns with politics the arts religion the fate of deconstruction and the future of sense Rather than studies commentaries or interpretations of Derrida s thought they are responses to his presence not exactly a presence to self but a presence in the world

Signing the Body Katherine Dauge-Roth,2019-11-14 The first major scholarly investigation into the rich history of the marked body in the early modern period this interdisciplinary study examines multiple forms uses and meanings of corporeal inscription and impression in France and the French Atlantic from the late sixteenth through early eighteenth centuries Placing into dialogue a broad range of textual and visual sources drawn from areas as diverse as demonology jurisprudence mysticism medicine pilgrimage commerce travel and colonial conquest that have formerly been examined largely in isolation Katherine Dauge Roth demonstrates that emerging theories and practices of signing the body must be understood in relationship to each other and to the development of other material marking practices that rose to prominence in the early modern period While each chapter brings to light the particular histories and meanings of a distinct set of cutaneous marks devil s marks on witches demon s marks upon the possessed devotional wounds Amerindian and Holy Land pilgrim tattoos and criminal brands each also reveals connections between these various types of stigmata links that were obvious to the early modern thinkers who theorized and deployed them Moreover the five chapters bring to the fore ways in which corporeal marking of all kinds interacted dynamically with practices of writing on imprinting and engraving paper parchment fabric and metal that flourished in the period together signaling important changes taking place in early modern society Examining the marked body as a material object replete with varied meanings and uses Signing the Body Marks on Skin in Early Modern France shows how the skin itself became the register of the profound cultural and social transformations that characterized this era
