Ancestor Game:

The Ancestor, 1903 Alex Miller: the ruin of time Robert Dixon, 2014-08-26 Alex Miller The Ruin of Time is the first sole authored critical survey of the respected Australian novelist's eleven novels. While these books are immediately accessible to the general reading public, they are manifestly works of high literary seriousness, substantial, technically masterful, and assured, intricately interconnected, and of great imaginative, intellectual, and ethical weight. Among his many prizes and awards, Alex Miller has twice won the Miles Franklin Literary Award for The Ancestor Game in 1993 and Journey to the Stone Country in 2003, the Commonwealth Writers' prize also for The Ancestor Game in 1993 and the New South Wales Premier's Literary Awards Christina Stead Prize for Conditions of Faith in 2001 and Lovesong in 2011. He received a Centenary Medal in 2001 and the Melbourne Prize for Literature in 2012. In 2011, he was elected a Fellow of the Australian Academy of the Humanities. Having published his eleventh novel Coal Creek in 2013, which won the Victorian Premier's Fiction Award in 2014, Miller is currently writing an autobiographical memoir with the working title Horizons. The Novels of Alex Miller Robert Dixon, 2020-07-16 One of Australia's most respected novelists, Alex Miller's writing is both popular and critically well received. He is twice winner of Australia's premier literary prize, the Miles Franklin Award. He has said that writing is his way of locating connections, and his work is known for its deeply empathic engagement with relationships and cultures. This collection explores his early and later works, including Miller's best-known novels The Ancestor Game, Journey to the Stone Country, Lovesong, and Autumn Laing. Contributors examine his intricately constructed plots, his interest in the nature of home and migration, the representation in his work of Australian history and culture, and key recurring themes, including art and Aboriginal issues. Also included is a memoir illustrated by photographs from his personal collection in which Alex Miller reflects on his writing life. With contributions from leading critics including Raimond Gaita, Peter Pierce, Ronald A Sharp, Brenda Walker, Elizabeth Webby, and Geordie Williamson, this collection is the first substantial critical analysis of Alex Miller's work. It is an invaluable resource for anyone teaching and studying contemporary Australian literature. A Talent(ed) Digger, 2022-05-20 Anna Rutherford has been the most dynamic ambassador of Australian culture in Europe. More than any other single person, she has been instrumental in spreading interest in Commonwealth and post-colonial studies. Wherever she has been in the world, she has brought people together in friendship and intellectual endeavour. This volume ranges widely over the areas Anna has promoted as teacher, editor, and publisher. Meridian, 1996 Ancestor-worship and Japanese Law Nobushige Hozumi, 1913 Proceedings Pacific Railway Club, 1917 Watching the Climbers on the Mountain Alex Miller, 2012-07-01 Ward Rankin had not wanted to be tied to the station; he'd imagined a life of travel and experience, but there was no one else. When his mother died, it came to him a frustrated man. Ida, his young wife, sees a solution to her own discontent in her growing feelings for the young English stockman Robert Crofts. Reports Rhode Island.
