Daily Prayer in the Early Church Paul F. Bradshaw, 2008-10-01 In liturgical study and especially in English liturgical study the subject of the daily office has always been something of the poor relation writes the author in his preface This volume aims to do something to fill that gap It begins with a detailed examination of the Jewish background and of the practice of daily prayer in the first three centuries of the Church and goes on to trace the evolution of the divine office in both its monastic and secular forms in East and West down to the time of St Benedict Intended as a replacement for The Influence of the Synagogue upon the Divine Office by C W Dugmore Alcuin Club Collection No 45 it not only incorporates the results of recent research by continental scholars and others but also challenges traditional assumptions at a number of important points offering a fresh interpretation of the evidence
