Ancient Iran:

The History of Ancient Iran Richard Nelson Frye, 1984 Persia Jeffrey Spier, Timothy Potts, Sara E. Cole, 2022-05-17 A fascinating study of Persia's interactions and exchanges of influence with ancient Greece and the Roman Empire. The founding of the first Persian Empire by the Achaemenid king Cyrus the Great in the sixth century BCE established one of the greatest world powers of antiquity. Extending from the borders of Greece to northern India, Persia was seen by the Greeks as a vastly wealthy and powerful rival and often as an existential threat. When the Macedonian king Alexander the Great finally conquered the Achaemenid Empire in 330 BCE, Greek culture spread throughout the Near East, but local dynasties first the Parthian (247 BCE–224 CE) and then the Sasanian (224–651 CE) reestablished themselves. The rise of the Roman Empire as a world power quickly brought it too into conflict with Persia despite the common trade that flowed through their territories. Persia addresses the political, intellectual, religious, and artistic relations between Persia, Greece, and Rome from the seventh century BCE to the Arab conquest of 651 CE. Essays by international scholars trace interactions and exchanges of influence. With more than three hundred images, this richly illustrated volume features sculpture, jewelry, silver, luxury vessels, coins, gems, and inscriptions that reflect the Persian ideology of empire and its impact throughout Persia's own diverse lands and the Greek and Roman spheres. This volume is published to accompany a major international exhibition presented at the Getty Villa from April 6 to August 8, 2022. Sino-Iranica; Chinese Contributions to the History of Civilization in Ancient Iran Berthold Laufer, 1919 Ancient Iran Peter Roger Stuart Moorey, 1975 Ancient Iran, 1965 The Heroines of Ancient Persia Bapsy Pavry Paulet Marchioness of Winchester, 1930 The Arts of Ancient Iran Roman Ghirshman, 1964

Civilization of the Eastern Irānians in Ancient Times: The old Iranian polity and the age of the Avesta Wilhelm Geiger, Darab-Dastur Peshotan Sanjānā, 1886 Nationalizing Iran Afshin Marashi, 2011-07-01 When Naser al-Din Shah who ruled Iran from 1848 to 1896 claimed the title Shadow of God on Earth, his authority rested on premodern conceptions of sacred kingship. By 1941, when Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi came to power, his claim to authority as the Shah of Iran was infused with the language of modern nationalism. In short, between roughly 1870 and 1940, Iran's traditional monarchy was forged into a modern nation-state. In Nationalizing Iran, Afshin Marashi explores the changes that made possible this transformation of Iran into a social abstraction in which notions of state, society, and culture converged. He follows Naser al-Din Shah on a tour of Europe in 1873 that led to his importing a new public image of monarchy, an image based on the European late imperial model, relying heavily on the use of public ceremonies, rituals, and festivals to promote loyalty to the monarch. Meanwhile, Iranian intellectuals were reimagining ethnic history to reconcile authentic Iranian culture with the demands of modernity. From the reform of public education to the symbolism surrounding grand public ceremonies in honor of long-dead poets, Marashi shows how the state invented and promoted key features of the common culture binding state and society. The ideological thrust of that century would become the source of dramatic contestation in the late twentieth century Marashi's study of the formative era of Iranian nationalism will be valuable to scholars and students of history sociology political science and anthropology as well as journalists policy makers and other close observers of contemporary Iran

This book analyzes particular patterns of nationalist self configuration and nationalist uses of memory counter memory and historical amnesia in Ireland from roughly around the time of the emergence of a broad based non sectarian Irish nationalist platform in the late eighteenth century the Society of United Irishmen until Ireland's partition and the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 In approaching Irish nationalism through the particular historical lens of Iran this book underscores the fact that Irish nationalism during this period and even earlier always utilized a historical paradigm that grounded Anglo Irish encounters and Irish nationalism in the broader world history a process that I term worlding of Ireland In effect Irish nationalism was always politically and culturally cosmopolitan in outlook in some formulations even in the case of many nationalists who resorted to insular and narrowly defined exclusionary ethnic and or religious formulations of the Irish nation Irish nationalists as nationalists in many other parts of the world recurrently imagined their own history either in contrast to or as reflected in the histories of peoples and lands elsewhere even while claiming the historical uniqueness of the Irish experience Present in a wide range of Irish nationalist political cultural and historical utterances were assertions of past and or present affinities with other peoples and lands

Ancient Persia Josef Wiesehöfer, 1996 Of all the great civilizations of the ancient world that of Persia is one of the least understood Josef Wiesehfer one of the most respected scholars of the ancient world provides here a comprehensive survey of the Persian Empire under Achaeminids the Parthians and the Sassanians By focusing on the primary Persian sources written archaeological and numismatic evidence from Persia he avoids the traditional Western approach which has tended to rely so heavily on inaccurate and sometimes prejudiced Greek and Roman sources Part of the freshness of this book comes from presenting a historical discussion of Persia from a Near Eastern perspective A comprehensive social political and cultural history of ancient Persia Wiesehfer's book provides important new material for specialists while being fully accessible and appealing to general readers interested
