role as its climax The author analyses the Thomas episode in light of the roles played by the characters Jesus encounters throughout the gospel They serve primarily to reveal how Jesus identity as God s life giving son is perceived in relation to humanity For those who believe he is simultaneously both the cause and the object of faith In John faith and life are inseparable The life that faith engenders flows from Jesus alone and the faith achieved by his followers comes only as a result of his causative action Thomas change from unbeliever to believer is the climactic illustration of this idea Judaism and Scripture Jacob Neusner,2003-09-08 This groundbreaking work continues Jacob Neusner s multi volume examination of the main texts of Judaism in its formative years The first two parts of the project Judaism The Evidence of the Yerushalmi examined the Mishnah and the Talmud of the Land of Israel and placed them in the social intellectual and religious contexts of their time In Judaism and Scripture Neusner moves from the study of ancient Judaism in society at large to an analysis of Rabbinic Judaism in relation to Scripture itself Neusner accomplishes this both through close analysis and through the first English translation of the critical text of the Leviticus Rabbah Tracing the relationship between the actual Book of Leviticus and its rabbinic commentary Neusner asks how the rabbis who stand behind the text make use of Leviticus and how through their comments on it they make intelligible and comprehensible statements of their own In answering these two questions Neusner shows through a prime example exactly how Scripture enters Judaism and how rabbis of the formative age of Judaism chose and taught the lessons they deemed critical to the life of Israel the Jewish people A Practical English Grammar Albert Newton Raub,1894 English Prose Sir Henry Craik,1894 Introduction.
