A Mapmakers Dream

Tor Hernes

A Mapmakers Dream:

A Mapmaker's Dream James Cowan,2007-12-18 In sixteenth century Venice in an island monastery a cloistered monk experiences the adventure of a lifetime all within the confines of his cell Part historical fiction part philosophical mystery A Mapmaker's Dream tells the story of Fra Mauro and his struggle to realize his life's work to make a perfect map one that represents the full breadth of Creation News of Mauro's projects attracts explorers pilgrims travelers and merchants all eager to contribute their accounts of faraway people and places As he listens to the tales of the strange and fantastic things they've seen Mauro comes to regard the world as much more than continents and kingdoms that it is also made up of a vast and equally real interior landscape of beliefs aspirations and dreams Mauro's map grows and takes shape becoming both more complete and incomprehensible In the process the boundaries of Mauro's world are pushed to the extreme raising questions about the relationship between representation imagination and the nature of reality itself

The Springboard

Stephen Denning,2012-08-21 The Springboard How Storytelling Ignites Action in Knowledge Era Organizations is the first book to teach storytelling as a powerful and formal discipline for organizational change and knowledge management The book explains how organizations can use certain types of stories springboard stories to communicate new or envisioned strategies structures identities goals and values to employees partners and even customers Readers will learn techniques by which they can help their organizations become more unified responsive and intelligent Storytelling is a management technique championed by gurus including Peter Senge Tom Peters and Larry Prusak Now Stephen Denning an innovator in the new discipline of organizational storytelling teaches how to use stories to address challenges fundamental to success in today's information economy

The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner,2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book

The Spatial Construction of Organization Tor Hernes,2004-01-01 An important challenge to organization theory is to search for constructs that explain how contexts for work emerge evolve persist and change This book explores the concept of space as representing a wide variety of contexts Organization as a process as distinguished from organization as an entity is seen as the construction of space where space is the outcome of human action and interaction as well as providing a context for actions and interaction The book shows how different forms of space lie at the base of a number of developments in organization theory It then takes the step to show how contemporary developments in social science represented by works by writers such as Giddens Luhmann Latour and Bourdieu can be used to establish a dynamic understanding of organization as space Insights from these discussions are used to establish a unique and coherent way of understanding complexities of modern organization Dayhiking , Faulkner in the Twenty-First Century Robert W. Hamblin, Ann J. Abadie, 2009-09-18 Contributions by Deborah N Cohn Leigh Anne Duck Robert W Hamblin Michael Kreyling Barbara Ladd Walter Benn Michaels Patrick O Donnell Theresa M Towner Annette Trefzer and Karl F Zender Faulkner in the Twenty First Century presents the thoughts of ten noted Faulkner scholars who spoke at the twenty seventh annual Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference at the University of Mississippi Theresa M Towner attacks the traditional classification of Faulkner s works as major and minor and argues that this causes the neglect of other significant works and characters Michael Kreyling uses photographs of Faulkner to analyze the interrelationships of Faulkner s texts with the politics and culture of Mississippi Barbara Ladd and Deborah Cohn invoke the relevance of Faulkner s works to the other South postcolonial Latin America Also approaching Faulkner from a postcolonial perspective Annette Trefzer looks at his contradictory treatment of Native Americans Within the tragic fates of such characters as Quentin Compson Gail Hightower and Rosa Coldfield Leigh Ann Duck finds an inability to cope with painful memories Patrick O Donnell examines the use of the future tense and Faulkner s growing skepticism of history as a linear progression To postmodern critics who denigrate The Fire and the Hearth Karl F Zender offers a rebuttal Walter Benn Michaels contends that in Faulkner s South and indeed the United States as a whole the question of racial identification tends to overpower all other issues Faulkner s recurring interest in frontier life and values inspires Robert W Hamblin s piece The Mapmakers John Noble Wilford, 2000 He details the innovations from John Harrison s eighteenth century marine chronometer which enabled navigators to calculate longitude at sea to the Pentagon s Global Positioning System GPS now used as widely by civilians as by the military to pinpoint the bearer s exact location on the globe BOOK JACKET "Boss" Tweed Denis Tilden Lynch, 1927 No political scandal in American history has had a greater impact on America s political consciousness than the rise and fall of the Tweed Ring in New York City between 1866 and 1871 In an age ripe with scandal both public and private the spectacular corruption charged to Boss Tweed and his associates estimates of their extortion range from 20 million to 200 million became an enduring symbol of the dark side of democratic politics The Tweed Ring contributed much more than cartoonist impressions it helped to shape a powerful theory of political reform It was in truth one of the formative events of progressivism that multifaceted doctrine that has evolved into the modern American creed In this sense the Tweed Ring was to produce not only deep misgivings about the existing regime but an insight into how it should be reformed Denis Tilden Lynch s biography of Boss Tweed was published in a time filled like Tweed s with sudden prosperity daunting problems and spectacular scandals It is a straight forward workmanlike study untroubled by the conceits of modern historical scholarship and close enough to its subject s generation to have some of the immediacy of journalism Of all the books published about the Tweed affair Lynch s study is the only one that is a genuine biography in which the man himself is the focus For this reason it conveys something of the texture of daily life in New York in the nineteenth century while bringing Tweed out from behind the shadows of

Thomas Nast's leering cartoons and presenting him as much as is possible as a man and not an icon. An interesting example of Americana this volume will be of interest to historians of the period as well as those interested in American urban and political life. Between Cedar and Vine Susannah Hays, 2002 Mapmakers of America S. Carl Hirsch, 1970 Toward Freedom, 1994 The World Review, 1928 The Chronicles of Panchita Villa and Other Guerrilleras Tey Diana Rebolledo, 2005 Although there have been substantial contributions to Chicana literature and criticism over the past few decades Chicanas are still underrepresented and underappreciated in the mainstream literary world and virtually nonexistent in the canon. Writers like Sandra Cisneros, Ana Castillo and Gloria Anzaldúa have managed to find larger audiences and critical respect but there are legions of Chicana writers and artists who have been marginalized and ignored despite their talent. Even in Chicano anthologies the focus has tended to be more on male writers. Chicanas have often found themselves without a real home in the academic world. Tey Diana Rebolledo has been writing about Chicana Latina identity, literature, discrimination and feminism for more than two decades. In this collection of essays she brings together both old and new works to give a state-of-the-moment look at the still largely unanswered questions raised by vigilant women of colour throughout the last half of the twentieth century. An intimate introductory essay about Rebolledo's personal experiences as the daughter of a Mexican mother and a Peruvian father serves to lay the groundwork for the rest of the volume. The essays delve into the historical development of Chicana writing and its early narratives, the representation of Chicanas as seen on book covers, Chicana feminism, being a Chicana critic in the academy, Chicana art history and Chicana creativity. Rebolledo encourages guerrillera warfare against academia in order to open up the literary canon to Chicana Latina writers who deserve validation. Canadian Business, 1959 American Dreams, American Nightmares David Madden, 1970 The pursuit of the American Dream supposedly shaped by the Edenic promises of the American land has engaged our writers from the beginning and much of our literature has come out of the national literary experience thus expressed. This collection of nineteen original unpublished essays written for this book is particularly relevant today when our collective field of vision seems obscured and when the American Dream seems to have become a cliché symbolic of the Dream defunct. The nineteen critics here presented include among others Leslie Fiedler, Oscar Cargill, Maxwell Geismar, Jules Chametzky, Louis Filler and Ihab Hassan. Most of them seem to agree with the view expressed by the majority of our best creative writers that in pursuing the American Dream America has created a nightmare. Taken together the nineteen essays provide a comprehensive view of American literature past and present as it has dealt with the Dream but the emphasis is on modern works and present social, cultural and political problems: poverty, war and racism. Ten of the essays focus on such key works as Herman Melville's The Two Temples, F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby, William Faulkner's The Bear, Thomas Wolfe's You Can't Go Home Again, Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man, Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman and Norman Mailer's Why Are We in Vietnam. Lumber World Review, 1925 Canadian Mining Journal, 1959 The French Revolution Justin Huntly McCarthy, 1890
