A Narrative of Captivity in Abyssinia Henry Blanc,2007-08-01 When speaking of Theodore s treatment of foreigners I will endeavour to explain the real cause of the misfortunes that befell Mr Stern That he was only the victim of circumstances is a fact beyond any doubt The extracts from his book and the notes from his diary brought as charges against him were only discovered several weeks after many cruelties had been inflicted upon him But I believe that many small apparently trifling incidents combined to make him the first European victim of the Abyssinian monarch The Emperor could not endure the thought that Europeans in his country should do aught else but work for him
