A Of Miracles:

In Defense of Miracles R. Douglas Geivett, Gary R. Habermas, 2025-10-16 Rumors of deception have surrounded claims of Jesus resurrection ever since the soldiers appointed to guard his tomb made their report to the Jewish authorities But no one has led the philosophic charge against miracles quite as influentially as David Hume with his 1748 essay Of Miracles Refined revised restated his arguments still affect philosophic discussions of miracles today During the twentieth century strong arguments have been raised by Antony Flew professor emeritus at Keele University in England Flew has contributed a fresh statement of his objections to the idea of God's acting in history just for this volume which also includes Hume's classic critique as a part of the case against miracles In response Douglas Geivett and Gary Habermas have assembled a distinguished team of scholars to rebut the objections and set forth the positive case for God's action in history Richard Purtill clarifies the word miracle while Norman Geisler critiques Hume's case against miracles Francis Beckwith and Winfried Corduan assess how we would recognize miracles in the past and in the present Ronald Nash examines naturalism's exclusion of miracles and shows its self-referential incoherence J P Moreland discusses whether science properly rules out the possibility of miracles God's existence and action in history are probed by David Beck and Stephen Davis while Douglas Geivett argues that within a theistic framework it is reasonable to expect miracles as confirmation of claims to special revelation David Clark examines miracles within the context of various world religions Robert Newman John Feinberg William Lane Craig and Gary Habermas conclude by investigating fulfilled prophecy the virgin birth and incarnation of Jesus the empty tomb and the resurrection appearances In Defense of Miracles is a comprehensive up-to-date discussion that should not be overlooked by anyone concerned with the current debate over miracles

Arnold, 2015-02-03 Sixth grader Iris Abernathy hates life in Corvallis Oregon where her family just moved It's always raining and everything is so wet Besides nothing has felt right since Iris's best friend Sarah died When Iris meets Boris an awkward mouth breather with a know-it-all personality she's not looking to make a new friend but it beats eating lunch alone Then she learns that Boris's very existence is a medical mystery maybe even a miracle and Iris starts to wonder why some people get miracles and others don't And if one miracle is possible can another one be too Can she possibly communicate with Sarah again

A Defense of Judaism Versus Proselytizing Christianity Isaac Mayer Wise, 1889 The volume hereby presented to the reader was written and published in response to those missionary chieftains of the city of Cincinnati who took a vulgar renegade from Judaism by his hand and appointed him a missionary to the Jews and notwithstanding the man's illiteracy furnished him with a pulpit and invited the Jews week after week by pompous advertisements in the public press and handbills freely distributed in the streets to come and hear that renegade
