Raiders or Elite Infantry? David W. Hogan,1992-12-10 How have the U S Army Rangers acted as special operations forces in military operations since 1942 Hogan s study examines the nature and purpose of the Rangers over the past fifty years and shows how they have served as scouts raiders assault troops and elite infantry They have spearheaded amphibious landings raided enemy prison camps patrolled behind enemy lines in Korea served alongside Green Berets in Vietnam and carried out special missions in Grenada Professional officers military historians students and general readers will find this a fascinating history This analytical account opens with a short description of the origins of the Ranger legend in America and then moves to a discussion of their use in World War II as commandos in 1942 then as spearheaders in 1943 and 1944 as line infantry in Europe and as special operations forces in the Pacific This provocative assessment also traces the development of Ranger raider units in Korea the special training and use of Green Berets as Rangers in Vietnam and the shifting of Ranger roles into more complex and varied types of operations in Vietnam and Grenada and in a world of increasing terrorism and changing combat situations Illustrations maps and a lengthy bibliography add to the usefulness of the study
