Do Not Disturb Is The Media Failing Australia:

Islam and the Australian News Media Halim Rane, Mohamad Abdalla, Jacqui Ewart, 2010 Few issues have captured media headlines over the past two decades like Islam and Muslims and much of what the Australian public knows about Islam and its followers is gleaned from the mass media Islam and the Australian News Media tackles head on the Australian news media's treatment of Islam and Muslims This incisive collection brings together the research and insights of academics editors and journalists on the representation of Islam and its impact on social relations the newsworthiness of Muslim issues and the complexities of covering Islam Importantly Islam and the Australian News Media also explores how Muslim communities in Australia are responding to their image in the Australian news media This book is a must read for all those interested in the relationship between media and society Publisher description Do Not Disturb Robert Manne, 2005 At a time when the Howard government has radically narrowed the national vision the mainstream media has failed to notice or to hold it to account Do Not Disturb offers diverse and enlightening explanations for this failure Featuring an array of independent insiders including Eric Beecher Guy Rundle Jon Faine Margaret Simons David Marr plus many more Talking Politics in Broadcast Media Mats Ekström, Marianna Patrona, 2011 This book is a collection of studies on political interaction in a variety of broadcast namely news and current affairs programs political interviews audience participation programs and radio phone ins Following a growing scholarly interest in political discourses dialogic forms of news production and media talk in general a number of internationally acclaimed scholars investigate the discursive and interactional practices that give rise to the arena of public politics in contemporary society Chapters span an array of cultural contexts as diverse as Sweden Greece Belgium Flanders the U K Spain Israel the U S A Australia and China Authors combine an interest in discourse analysis and conversation analysis with different disciplinary orientations such as linguistics media and cultural studies sociology political science and social psychology The book uncovers current trends in media and political discourse and will be of interest to both students and scholars of media discourse and politics Critique, Social Media and the Information Society Christian Fuchs, Marisol Sandoval, 2013-11-26 In times of global capitalist crisis we are witnessing a return of critique in the form of a surging interest in critical theories such as the critical political economy of Karl Marx and social rebellions as a reaction to the commodification and instrumentalization of everything On one hand there are overdrawn claims that social media Twitter Facebook YouTube etc have caused uproars in countries like Tunisia and Egypt On the other hand the question arises as to what actual role social media play in contemporary capitalism crisis rebellions the strengthening of the commons and the potential creation of participatory democracy The commodification of everything has resulted also in a commodification of the communication commons including Internet communication that is today largely commercial in character This book deals with the questions of what kind of society and what kind of Internet are desirable how capitalism power structures and social media are connected how political struggles are connected to social media what current developments of the Internet and society tell us about potential futures how an alternative Internet can look like and how a participatory commons based Internet and a co operative participatory sustainable information society can be achieved

Australian Book Review ,2006 Reporting Climate Change in the Global North and South Jahnnabi

Das,2019-08-29 This book reveals how journalists in the Global North and Global South mediate climate change by examining journalism and reporting in Australia and Bangladesh This dual analysis presents a unique opportunity to examine the impacts of media and communication in two contrasting countries in terms of economy income and population size which both face serious climate change challenges In reporting on these challenges journalism as a political institutional and cultural practice has a significant role to play It is influential in building public knowledge and contributes to knowledge production and dialogue however the question of who gets to speak and who doesn t is a significant determinant of journalists capacity to establish authority and assign cultural meaning to realities By measuring the visibility from presences and absences the book explores the extent to which the influences are similar or different in the two countries contrasting how journalists communication power conditions public thought on climate change The investigation of climate communication across the North South divide is especially urgent given the global commitment to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and it is critical we gain a fuller understanding of the dynamics of climate communication in low emitting low income countries as much as in the high emitters high income countries This book contributes to this understanding and highlights the value of a dual analysis in being ably draw out parallels as well as divergences which will directly assist in developing cross national strategies to help address the mounting challenge of climate change This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change and environmental journalism as well as media and communication studies more broadly Shooting the Picture Sally Young,Fay Anderson,2016-08-01 Shooting The Picture is the story of Australian press photography from 1888 to today the power of the medium seismic changes in the newspaper industry and photographers who were often more colourful than their subjects This groundbreaking book explores our political leaders and campaigns crime war and censorship international events disasters and trauma sport celebrity gender race and migration It maps the technological evolution in the industry from the dark room to digital from picturegram machines to iPhones and from the death knock to the ascendancy of social media It raises the question whether these changes will spell the end of traditional press photography as we know it The Future of Journalism Bob Franklin,2013-09-13 The future of journalism is hotly contested and highly uncertain reflecting developments in media technologies shifting business strategies for online news changing media organisational and regulatory structures the fragmentation of audiences and a growing public concern about some aspects of tabloid journalism practices and reporting as well as broader political sociological and cultural changes These developments have combined to impoverish the flow of existing revenues available to fund journalism impact radically on traditional journalism professional practices while simultaneously generating an increasingly frenzied search for sustainable and equivalent funding and from a wide range of sources to nurture and deliver quality journalism in the future This book brings together journalists and distinguished academic specialists from around the globe to present the findings from their research and to discuss the future of journalism the shifting quality of its products its wide ranging sources of finance as well as the economic and democratic consequences of the significant changes confronting Journalism

The Future of Journalism details the challenges facing the press in contemporary societies and provides essential reading for everyone interested in the role of journalism in shaping and sustaining literate civil and democratic societies This book consists of special issues from Journalism Studies and Journalism Practice

The Gendered Newsroom Louise North,2008

The Gendered Newsroom is a vivid exploration of the gendered production of news and in particular the experiences of women in the Australian print news media The book engages with the question of how gender shapes newsroom culture and in so doing is concerned with production practices and cultural processes It considers the dilemmas constraints negotiations and compromises which shape journalists day to day routines It probes specific questions about gender in asking what is journalism and what is a journalist How is newsroom culture embodied How do female journalists experience newsroom culture How has global industry change impacted on the workplace and what does this mean for journalists How does feminism get played out in the newsroom And what is the relationship of newsroom culture to the content of the news The author's astute empirical research provides a distinctive account of how Australian print news media journalists experience newsroom culture The 17 in depth interviews with journalists ranging in age and industry experience reveal a complex culture coming to terms with dramatic industry changes

Journal of Reformed Theology ,2007

Media & Politics

Wayne Errington,Narelle Miragliotta,2007 A comprehensive introduction to the politics of the Australian media this text examines the media's development and evolution as well as the key debates and controversies which have shaped the domestic media landscape in the last decade It provides a strong framework to understand the relationship between Australian media and politics

The Great Feminist Denial Monica Dux,Zora Simic,2008 Feminism is getting the blame for women not having babies for the stress of working mothers and for the rise of raunch culture It seems that the final feminist destination is a sordid selfish mess In this book Monica Dux and Zora Simic examine the popular debates in which feminism stands accused They show how this Great Feminist Denial is suppressing genuine debate about the problems that women face and preventing real feminism from providing the solutions that it still has to offer

BOOK JACKET

Broadcasting Pluralism and Diversity Lesley Hitchens,2006-10 A study of the policy and regulatory measures relating to the promotion of media diversity in the United Kingdom the United States and Australia

Overland ,2006

Allied and Addicted Alison Broinowski,2007 In many respects Australia behaves as if it were still a colonial dependency Our policies on foreign affairs trade human rights and the environment seem to be uncritically allied to those of the United States Alison Broinowski argues that Australia's development as an independent nation has stalled and warns that behaving like the schoolyard bully's errand boy has earned Australia a reputation for being ready to kiss up and kick down Broinowski shows how being so closely identified with current American policies harms Australia s interests and how the United States alliance actually endangers Australia more than it protects us But she remains optimistic that Australia may at last be turning in the direction of genuine independence Allied and Addicted challenges many of the assumptions of conservative policy makers and highlights the need for informed choices in the debate about Australia s place in the world Publisher Westerly ,2006 Media Information Australia ,1988 Australia and Papua New Guinea Beno Boeha,John McFarlane,2000 The Sandline Affair Sean Dorney,1998 In March 1997 the Papua New Guinea Defence Force revolted against government plans to use mercenaries to end the war on Bougainville to reopen that island s rich copper mine The Medical Journal of Australia ,1963
