Doctor in the Nude Richard Gordon,1999 The Doctor and Student Christopher Saint German,1886 On the Syntax of Missing Objects Marta Ruda,2017-11-15 Focusing on objects this book aims at contributing to the on going inquiry into modelling structures with missing arguments In addition to offering detailed discussion and analyses of a unique combination of three very different systems English Polish and Hungarian a larger goal here is to provide a framework for deriving cross linguistic and intra linguistic variation in the domain of object drop Variation of this type is hypothesised to follow first and foremost from the association of heads in the extended nominal projection with phonemic features and from the system of interpretation of nominal expressions in a language The book will be of interest to both theoretically and descriptively oriented researchers since even though its focus is theoretical a detailed discussion of the empirical facts including some novel findings drawn from corpus studies and grammaticality judgements is also offered The Doctor's Lass Edward Charles Booth,1910 Kira Muratova Jane Taubman,2004-11-26 Kira Muratova is a respected and original contemporary film director yet her earliest works were not welcomed when they were shown just after the end of Brezhnev s period of stagnation Only in 1987 in one of the first breaths of perestroika were these movies re released sending Muratova from talented pariah to celebrity almost overnight Drawing from interviews with Muratova herself and her friends unpublished scripts and interviews with audiences Taubman traces the progress of Muratova s career looking closely at each of her films including the 1990 masterpiece Asthenic Syndrome She also surveys critical reaction to her films both in Russia and the West People v.
