within contemporary art and anthropology. Traditionally, the anthropology of art has tended to focus on the interpretation of tribal artifacts but has not considered the impact such art could have on its own ways of making and presenting work. The potential for the contemporary art scene to suggest innovative representational practices has been similarly ignored. This book challenges the reluctance that exists within anthropology to pursue alternative strategies of research, creation, and exhibition and argues that contemporary artists and anthropologists have much to learn from each other's practices. The contributors to this pioneering book consider the work of artists such as Susan Hiller, Francesco Clemente, and Rimer Cardillo and, in exploring topics such as the possibility of shared representational values, aesthetics, and modernity, and tattooing, they suggest productive new directions for practices in both fields.

The Mestizo Mind Serge Gruzinski, 2013-10-18

Mestizo, a person of mixed blood, specifically a person of mixed European and American Indian ancestry. Serge Gruzinski, the renowned historian of Latin America, offers a brilliant original critique of colonization and globalization in The Mestizo Mind. Looking at the fifteenth-century colonization of Latin America, Gruzinski documents the mélange that resulted: colonized mating with colonizers, Indians joining the Catholic Church and colonial government, and Amerindian visualizations of Jesus and Perseus. These physical and cultural encounters created a new culture, a new individual, and a phenomenon we now call globalization. Revealing globalization's early origins, Gruzinski then fast-forwards to the contemporary mélange seen in the films of Peter Greenaway and Wong Kar Wai to argue that over 500 years of intermingling has produced the mestizo mind, a state of mixed thinking that we all possess. A masterful alchemy of history, anthropology, philosophy, and visual analysis, The Mestizo Mind definitively conceptualizes the clash of civilizations in the style of Homi Bhabha, Gayatri Spivak, and Anne McClintock.
