Do Clams Bite? Eric Kraft,2008-08-11 Leroy considers the origins of his childhood pelecypodophobia the fear of bivalve mollusks meets the imaginary friend who will remain his best friend for life memorizes the legends of his ancestors in the Leroy line including Black Jacques Leroy who invented beer studies his father s nude photographs of family friend May Castle and enjoys a moonlight swim with Margot and Martha the Glynn twins after which he concludes that clams do not bite

The Little Follies Eric Kraft,1995-01-15 In 1962 as a college sophomore Eric Kraft fell asleep in the library Among the books surrounding him he began to dream of a nameless boy sitting on a dilapidated dock in the warm sun of a summer day playing a game He was trying to bring the soles of his bare feet as close as he could to the surface of the water without touching it That boy became Peter Leroy and from Kraft s dream grew one of the most delightful unusual projects in contemporary literature Funny touching witty mythic and profound Kraft s novels featuring Peter his friends and family and the seaside town of Babbington create an alternate reality a world in which we see ourselves darkened and wavering as reflected by deep water Little Follies gathers nine Peter Leroy novellas into one volume the perfect introduction to an irresistible cycle of books by an author sometimes compared to Cheever Proust Twain Borges Russel Baker and Garrison Keillor but who is uniquely Eric Kraft

The Fox and the Clam Eric Kraft,2008-10-23 Leroy recalls his childhood friend Matthew Barber Peter and Matthew seem unlikely friends Matthew finds little to like in life and his outlook is decidedly blue Peter finds much to like in life though nearly everything puzzles him and he is essentially sanguine about his future no matter how groundless his optimism might be Eventually the friends find as most friends do that each has added to his developing self a little of the other A set of thematic variations ranging from a Saturday afternoon cartoon about a happy hippo and an unhappy one to a deadly competition having to do with skipping third grade that raise complicated farce to the level of calculus Anna Shapiro The New Yorker
