Animalesintermediate Masks:

Elements of Folk Psychology Wilhelm Max Wundt, 1916 This book discusses the history and task of folk psychology Topics covered include folk psychology s relation to ethnology analytic and synthetic methods of exposition folk psychology as a psychological history of the development of mankind and the division into four main periods Masks, Heads, and Faces Ellen Russell Emerson, 1891 Story of the Development of Mankind Wilhelm Max Wundt, 1916 Ritual Masks Henry Pernet, 1992 Inter-ocean ,1924 Performative Inter-Actions in African Theatre 1 Kene Igweonu, Osita Okagbue, 2014-01-14 This book is part of a three volume book set published under the general title of Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre Each of the three books in the set has a unique subtitle that works to better focus its content and differentiates it from the other two volumes The contributors backgrounds and global spread adequately reflect the international focus of the three books that make up the collection The contributions in their various ways demonstrate the many advances and ingenious solutions adopted by African theatre practitioners in tackling some of the challenges arising from the adverse colonial experience as well as the one sided advance of globalisation The contributions attest to the thriving nature of African theatre and performance which in the face of these challenges has managed to retain its distinctiveness while at the same time acknowledging contesting and appropriating influences from elsewhere into an aesthetic that is identifiably African Consequently the three books are presented as a comprehensive exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance both on the continent and diaspora Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre 1 Diaspora Representations and the Interweaving of Cultures explores the idea that in and from their various locations around the world the plays of the African diaspora acknowledge and pay homage to the cultures of home while simultaneously articulating a sense of their Africanness in their various inter actions with their host cultures Contributions in Diaspora Representations and the Interweaving of Cultures equally attest to the notion that the diaspora as we see it is not solely located outside of the African continent itself but can be found in those performances in the continent that engage performatively with the West and other parts of the world in that process of articulating identity Elements of Folk Psychology - Outline of a Psychological History of the Development of Mankind Wilhelm Wundt, 2016-06-09 This vintage book contains Wilhelm Maximilian Wundt s 1916 work Elements of Folk Psychology Outline of a Psychological History of the Development of Mankind Wilhelm Maximilian Wundt 1832 1920 was a German physiologist physician philosopher and professor He is widely considered to be one of the founding fathers of modern psychology This fascinating volume is highly recommended for those with an interest in psychology and would make for a fantastic addition to any collection Contents include Introduction The Discovery Of Primitive Man The Culture Of Primitive Man In Its External Expressions The Origin Of Marriage And The Family Primitive Society The Beginnings Of Language The Thinking Of Primitive Man Earliest Beliefs In Magic And Demons The Beginnings Of Art The Intellectual And Moral Characteristics Of Primitive Man et cetera Many vintage books such as this are
