Animals Miriam Austerman,1977 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1979 Connecting Animals and Children in Early Childhood Patty Selly,2014-06-10 This resource helps educators and caregivers understand why all species of animals are valuable to children s early learning Telling Animals Jasmine Spencer,2022-06-27 In Telling Animals Jasmine Spencer offers a comparative yet personal approach to Dene Athabaskan stories both Northern and Southern It examines the animating effects of animal stories the transformative power of animacies in Dene stories and the effects of narrative revitalization through animal grammar It takes as its first premise the teachings of many Elders who have shared that the stories are alive Jasmine Spencer s comparative approach combines literary linguistic anthropological and philosophical theories and methods using a deictic framework for closely reading the stories in both their Dene languages and in English translation The narrative epistemologies enacted by Dene stories counterbalance many of the ethical problems inherent within Euro Western approaches to ontology and experience These stories revive those who listen and read offering hope Animals Aloft Allan Janus,2005 This is the visual history and anecdotal story of the mascots pets companions and best friends that have made up a whole side of air history retrieved from legendary archives of the National Air Space Museum Relations. Beyond Anthropocentrism. Vol. 2 No. 1 (2014). Minding Animals: Part I AA. VV.,2015-05-13T00:00:00+02:00 Relations Beyond Anthropocentrism is a peer refereed journal of trans anthropocentric ethics and related inquires The main aim of the journal is to create a professional interdisciplinary forum in Europe to discuss moral and scientific issues that concern the increasing need of going beyond narrow anthropocentric paradigms in all fields of knowledge The journal accepts submissions on all topics which promote European research adopting a non anthropocentric ethical perspective on both interspecific and intraspecific relationships between all life species humans included and between these and the abiotic environment Electric Animal Akira Mizuta Lippit,2000 Differentiation from animals helped to establish the notion of a human being but the disappearance of animals now threatens that identity This is the argument underlying Electric Animal a probing exploration of the figure of the animal in modern culture Akira Mizuta Lippit shows us the animal as a crucial figure in the definition of modernity essential to developments in the natural sciences and technology radical transformations in modern philosophy and literature and the advent of psychoanalysis and the cinema Moving beyond the dialectical framework that has traditionally bound animal and human being Electric Animal raises a series of questions regarding the idea of animality in Western thought Can animals communicate Do they have consciousness Are they aware of death By tracing questions such as these through a wide range of texts by writers ranging from Friedrich Nietzsche to Jacques Derrida Sigmund Freud to Vicki Heame Lewis Carroll to Franz Kafka and Sergei Eisenstein to Gilles Deleuze Lippit arrives at a remarkable thesis revealing an extraordinary logical consensus in Western thought animals do not have language and hence cannot die The animal has accordingly haunted thought as a form of spectral and undead being Lippit demonstrates how in the late nineteenth century this phantasmic concept of animal being reached the proportions of an epistemological crisis engendering the disciplines and media of psychoanalysis modern literature and cinema among others Against the prohibitive logic of Western philosophy these fields opened a space for rethinking animality Technology usually thought of in opposition to nature came to serve as therepository for an unmournable animality a kind of vast wildlife museum A highly original work that charts new territory in current debates over language and mortality subjectivity and technology Electric Animal brings to light fundamental questions about the status of representation of the animal and of ourselves in the age of biomechanical reproduction

Communicating with Animals Margrit Coates,2012-05-03 Margrit Coates s new book is essential reading for anyone who loves animals and who wishes to improve their understanding of animal behaviour One of the world s leading animal communicators and healers Margrit has many years experience working closely with species of all kinds from horses dogs and cats to wild life rare breeds and rescue animals In Communicating with Animals she draws upon her very special gift and amazing experiences to help us connect with animals too Using intuition insight and common sense she shows how to tune into what they are really thinking and feeling helping us bond with them at an incredibly deep level Her powerful techniques range from communicating with the furry feathered and scaly friends who share our homes to larger animals such as horses and even Anne the Elephant as well as other non domestic creatures Ultimately Margrit s wish is for each one of us to be able to tune into all life around us Besides practical exercises and handy tips Communicating with Animals is brimming with heart warming stories making it a great read and a truly inspirational guide
