Anna Edes:

Anna Edes Dezso Kosztolányi, 2017-04-25 Anna des is a dark and deeply moving naturalistic novel a classic work of twentieth century Hungarian literature A skillful portrayal of the cruelty and emptiness of bourgeois life Anna des was first published in 1926 and enthusiastically received by the intellectual coffee house society through which it circulated The novel was later acknowledged by authors such as Thomas Mann as a model of language and form and in turn established Dezso Kosztolanyi as one of the most significant writers of Eastern European fiction Anna is the hard working and long suffering heroine the unhappy maid destroyed by her pitiless employers Her tragic relationship with them is played out against the political turbulence in Budapest following the First World War Yet her endurance and revenge are depicted with keen psychological as well as historical insight becoming in the words of the translator not merely an argument about social conditions but raised to genuine tragedy

Chicago of the Balkans Gwen Jones, 2017-07-05 At the point of its creation in 1873 Budapest was intended to be a pleasant rallying point of orderliness high culture and elevated social principles the jewel in the national crown From the turn of the century to World War II however the Hungarian capital was described variously as Judapest the sinful city not in Hungary and the Chicago of the Balkans This is the first English language study of competing metropolitan narratives in Hungarian literature that spans both the liberal late Habsburg and post liberal Christian national eras at the same time as the Jewish Question became increasingly inseparable from representations of the city Works by writers from a wide variety of backgrounds are discussed from Jewish satirists to icons of the radical Right representatives of conservative national schools and modernist avant garde and peasantist authors Gwen Jones is Hon Research Associate at the Department of Hebrew and Jewish Studies University College London

Comparative Literature Steven Tötösy de Zepetnek, 1998 This book serves several purposes all very much needed in today s embattled situation of the humanities and the study of literature First in Chapter One the author proposes that the discipline of Comparative Literature is a most advantageous approach for the study of literature and culture as it is a priori a discipline of cross disciplinarity and of international dimensions After a Manifesto for a New Comparative Literature he proceeds to offer several related theoretical frameworks as a composite method for the study of literature and culture he designates and explicates as the systemic and empirical approach Following the introduction of the proposed New Comparative Literature the author applies his method to a wide variety of literary and cultural areas of inquiry such as Literature and Cultural Participation where he discusses several aspects of reading and readership Chapter Two Comparative Literature as and Interdisciplinarity Chapter Three where he deals with theory and application for film and literature and medicine and literature Cultures Peripherality and Comparative Literature Chapter Four where he proposes a theoretical designation he terms inbetween peripherality for the study of East Central European literatures and cultures as well as ethnic minority writing Women s Literature and Men Writing about Women Chapter Five where he analyses texts written by women and texts about women written by men in the theoretical context of Ethical Constructivism The Study of Translation and Comparative Literature Chapter Six where after a theoretical introduction he presents a new version of Anton Popovic's dictionary for literary translation as a taxonomy for the study of translation and The Study of Literature and the Electronic Age Chapter Seven where he discusses the impact of new technologies on the study of literature and culture The analyses in their various applications of the proposed New Comparative Literature involve modern and contemporary authors and their works such as Dorothy Richardson Margit Kaffka Mircea Cartarescu Robert Musil Alfred Döblin Hermann Hesse Peter Esterházy Dezső Kosztolányi Michael Ondaatje Endre Kukorely Else Seel and others

A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Film Noir John Grant, 2023-09-21 Featuring rumpled PIs shyster lawyers corrupt politicians double crossers femmes fatales and of course losers who find themselves down on their luck yet again film noir is a perennially popular cinematic genre This extensive encyclopedia describes movies from noir's earliest days and even before looking at some of noir's ancestors in US and European cinema as well as noir's more recent offshoots from neo-noirs to erotic thrillers Entries are arranged alphabetically covering movies from all over the world from every continent save Antarctica with briefer details provided for several hundred additional movies within those entries A copious appendix contains filmographies of prominent directors actors and writers With coverage of blockbusters and program fillers from Going Straight US 1916 to Broken City US 2013 via Nora Inu Japan 1949 O Anthropos tou Trainou Greece 1958 El Less Wal Kilab Egypt 1962 Reportaje a la Muerte Peru 1993 Zift Bulgaria 2008 and thousands more A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Film Noir is an engrossing and essential reference work that should be on the shelves of every cinephile

The Routledge History Handbook of Central and Eastern Europe in the Twentieth Century Włodzimierz Borodziej, Ferenc Laczó, Joachim von Puttkamer, 2020-08-02 Intellectual Horizons offers a pioneering transnational and comparative treatment of key thematic areas in the intellectual and cultural history of Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century For most of the twentieth century Central and Eastern European ideas and cultures constituted an integral part of wider European trends However the intellectual and cultural history of this diverse region has rarely been incorporated sufficiently into nominally comprehensive histories of Europe This volume redresses this underrepresentation and provides a more balanced perspective on the recent past of the continent through original critical overviews of themes ranging from the social and conceptual history of intellectuals and histories of political thought and historiography to literary visual and religious cultures to perceptions and representations of the region in the twentieth century While structured thematically individual contributions are organized chronologically They emphasize where relevant generational experiences agendas and accomplishments while taking into account the sharp ruptures that characterize the period The third in a four volume set on Central and Eastern Europe in the twentieth century it is the go to resource for understanding the intellectual and cultural history of this dynamic region

Hungarian Perspectives on the Western Canon László Bengi, Gábor Mezei, Ernő Kulcsár Szabó, 2017-05-11 In this collection Hungarian literature is read together with canonical works of the Western literary tradition The book studies the distinction between major and minor literatures showing that such parallel readings may highlight previously unknown components of the literary tradition The book does not hold traditional comparative methods based on verifiable mediations or transactions between national philologies and national literary narratives to be the exclusive standard of interpretation readings can concentrate on common surfaces and textual events instead This is what is meant by post comparative perspectives a term to indicate that the conditions of a comparative reading never precede the reading itself On this basis the present volume points at several possibilities of how a common ground between texts can be created especially because the chapters within it perform parallel readings in highly different ways
