Anna The One And Only:

Anna, the One and Only Barbara M. Joosse, 1993-02-01 Anna's Shtetl Lawrence A. Coben, 2011-01-25 A rare view of a childhood in a European ghetto Anna Spector was born in 1905 in Korsun a Ukrainian town on the Ros River eighty miles south of Kiev Held by Poland until 1768 and annexed by the Tsar in 1793 Korsun and its fluid ethnic population were characteristic of the Pale of Settlement in Eastern Europe comprised of Ukrainians Cossacks Jews and other groups living uneasily together in relationships punctuated by violence Anna s father left Korsun in 1912 to immigrate to America and Anna left in 1919 having lived through the Great War the Bolshevik Revolution and part of the ensuing civil war as well as several episodes of more or less organized pogroms deadly anti Jewish riots begun by various invading military detachments during the Russian Civil War and joined by some of Korsun s peasants In the early 1990s Anna met Lawrence A Coben a medical doctor seeking information about the shtetls to recapture a sense of his own heritage Anna had near perfect recall of her daily life as a girl and young woman in the last days in one of those historic but doomed communities Her rare account the product of some 300 interviews is valuable because most personal memoirs of ghetto life are written by men Also very often Christian neighbors appear in ghetto accounts as a stolid peasant mass assembled on market days as destructive mobs or as an arrogant and distant collection of government officials and nobility Anna s story is exceptionally rich in a sense of the Korsun Christians as friends neighbors and individuals Although the Jewish communities in Eastern Europe are now virtually gone less than 100 years ago they counted a population of millions The firsthand records we have from that lost world are therefore important and this view from the underrecorded lives of women and the young is particularly welcome

Eighteen Upbuilding Discourses Søren Kierkegaard, 1990 There is much to be learned philosophically from this volume but philosophical instruction was not Kierkegaard s aim here except in the broad sense of self knowledge and deepened awareness Indicating the intention of the discourses the titles include The Expectancy of Faith Love Will Hide a Multitude of Sins Strengthening in the Inner Being To Gain One s Soul in Patience Patience in Expectancy and Against Cowardliness In tone and substance these works are in accord with the concluding words of encouragement in Either Or which was paired with the first volume of discourses Ask yourself and keep on asking until you find the answer for one may have known something many times acknowledged it one may have willed something many times attempted it and yet only the deep inner motion only the heart s indescribable emotion only that will convince you that what you have acknowledged belongs to you that no power can take it from you for only the truth that builds up is truth for you Anna's Betrayal Donna Baca, 2025-09-03 After graduation every young girl dreams of an exciting and happy life where the future is something to be excited about But unfortunately Anna s world comes crashing down She is soon cast into a situation that no young person should ever have to endure Because of greed her life soon takes a horrible turn She has to learn to adapt to survive
